A PRACTICAL HAND-BOOK OF MEDICAL CHEMISTRY. With numerous Illustrations on Wood. Fcap. 8vo. cloth, 6*s.* 6*d.* By JOHN E. BOWMAN, Demonstrator of Chemistry in King's College.

"The want which, as a teacher of Practical Chemistry in a medical school, I have long felt of a manual containing instructions for the examination and analysis of urine, blood, and a few other of the more important animal products, both healthy and morbid, and comprising, also, directions for the detection of poisons in organic mixtures and in the tissues, was my chief inducement in undertaking to write the present little work. In doing this, my endeavour has been to supply a book that will be found useful, not only to the medical student, but also to the practitioner, to whom the value and importance of the applications of modern chemistry and microscopic analysis to his art are becoming daily more and more apparent."—Extract from Preface.

"Mr. Bowman has succeeded in supplying a desideratum in medical literature. In the little volume before us, he has given a concise but comprehensive account of all matters in chemistry which the man in practice may require to know."—Lancet.

"A very able manual of instructions for the examinations and analysis of the animal products; it will prove of great utility both to the medical student and practitioner."—Medical Times.

A TREATISE ON THE CLIMATE AND METEOROLOGY OF MADEIRA.

To which are attached, A Review of the State of Agriculture and of the Tenure of Land; by GEORGE PEACOCK, D.D., F.R.S.: and an Historical and Descriptive Account of the Island, and Guide to Visitors; by JOHN DRIVER, Consul for Greece, Madeira.

"Our sense of the value of Dr. Mason's work will have been already gathered from the frequent references we have made to it We may indeed safely characterize it as a model of care, diligence, precision, and clear-sighted laborious investigation."—Medico-Chirurgical Review.

THE TREATMENT OF SECONDARY, CONSTITUTIONAL AND CONFIRMED SYPHILIS, by a Safe and Successful Method; with numerous Cases and Clinical Observations, illustrating its Efficacy and Mode of Application in the more Obstinate and Complicated Forms of the Disease. Post 8vo. cloth, 5*s*. By LANGSTON PARKER, Surgeon to the Queen's Hospital, Birmingham.

"A new method of treatment for this obstinate class of diseases, having such strong pretensions to certainty and safety, should receive the attention of surgeons, come whence it may; but when introduced to their notice by a surgeon of Mr. Parker's standing, it becomes even more imperatively their duty to give it a fair and extended trial. We entertain no doubt that Mr. Parker's high estimate of this method of treatment will meet with confirmation from the experience of his surgical brethren."—Medical Gazette.

A PHYSICIAN'S HOLIDAY;

or, a Month in Switzerland, in the Summer of 1848. With a Map and Illustrations. Second Edition. Post 8vo. cloth, 8*s*. 6*d*. By JOHN FORBES, M.D., F.R.S.

ON DISEASES OF MENSTRUATION AND OVARIAN INFLAMMATION

in Connexion with STERILITY AND AFFECTIONS OF THE WOMB. Post 8vo. cloth, 6*s*. By EDWARD JOHN TILT, M.D., Senior Physician to the Paddington Free Dispensary for the Diseases of Women and Children.

"We rejoice to see that physicians of weight and authority are beginning to look beyond the os and cervix uteri for the causes of disease in these parts. Already a reformation somewhat analogous to what Abernethy effected for surgical diseases has commenced; and we feel assured that Dr. Tilt's work will powerfully co-operate in helping it forward, and in placing the pathology and therapeutics of diseases of the female generative organs upon a sound and permanent basis."—Dublin Quarterly Journal.

"We are only doing justice to Dr. Tilt, in saying that his views on the pathology of the ovaries are likely to modify and improve the present treatment of uterine disease. We regard it as a seasonable and valuable publication, well deserving the attentive perusal of those who are interested in obstetric medicine."—Medico-Chirurgical Review.

"Mr. Taylor has had extensive opportunities of putting into practice the treatment which he advocates in the very useful and practical little work before us. He speaks with confidence, but not beyond the limit which his unusual success would seem to justify. We cordially recommend Mr. Taylor's little volume."—Lancet.

THE BATH WATERS; their Use and Effects in the Cure and Relief of various Chronic Diseases. 8vo. cloth, 5*s*. By JAMES TUNSTALL, M.D.

"Dr. Tunstall has condensed into the volume before us a summary of his experience of the results of the practice in the Bath Hospital, establishing clearly the fact that the Bath thermal waters are a very efficacious remedy in many chronic diseases over which the ordinary treatment has little or no control. There is scarcely a page in Dr. Tunstall's book that is not interesting as to its particular subject; and as there is a great deal of useful knowledge to be collected from the perusal of it, we earnestly recommend the work to our readers as a highly-interesting production."—Provincial Journal.

PROTEUS; OR, THE LAW OF NATURE. 8vo. cloth, 6s.

By C. B. RADCLIFFE, M.B.

"Dr. Radcliffe's general doctrines are, in our apprehension, perfectly sound, and capable of being demonstrated in the most satisfactory manner, especially by the data supplied by embryological research."—Medico-Chirurgical Review.

"We can truly commend Dr. Radcliffe's essay as full of interest, sound in its inferences, and calculated to enlarge our ideas of the vastness and simplicity of the scheme of Creation; while, at the same time, it tends to increase our reverent admiration of the Omnipotence and Omniscience, which, amidst such apparent incongruity, has established harmony, and has so marvellously combined unity with endless variety of details."—Medical Gazette.

"I can confidently recommend this work, from my own personal experience, to all who are desirous of obtaining instruction in analysis, for its simplicity and usefulness, and the facility with which it may be apprehended."—Baron Liebig.

"That this excellent treatise on Qualitative Analysis has already reached a third edition is a sufficient proof of its merits, and furnishes a striking indication of the extent to which practical chemistry is now cultivated in England. It is a treatise complete in itself, and with which it is impossible to dispense in a working laboratory. The descriptions of the chemical processes are clear and precise, and such as may be easily mastered by a student of ordinary industry and capacity."—Medical Gazette.

"When, a few years back, the first edition of the present work was published, the subject was one almost entirely unknown to the obstetrical celebrities of the day; and even now we have reason to know that the bulk of the Profession are not fully alive to the importance and frequency of the disease of which it takes cognizance. The present edition is so much enlarged, altered, and improved, that it can scarcely be considered the same work."—Dr. Rankin's Abstract.

"Professor Fergusson's work, we feel persuaded, will be as great a favourite as it deserves; for it combines the powerful recommendations of cheapness and elegance, with a clear, sound, and practical treatment of every subject in surgical science. The illustrations, by Bagg, are admirable —in his very best style."—Edinburgh Journal of Medical Science.

"This volume combines, in an eminent degree, amusement with instruction. The laws and properties of those wonderful and mysterious agents—heat, light, electricity, galvanism, and magnetism, are appropriately discussed, and their influence on vegetation noticed. We would especially recommend it to youths commencing the study of medicine, both as an incentive to their natural curiosity, and an introduction to several of those branches of science which will necessarily soon occupy their attention."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

"In this work we find the last, the most matured views of its venerable author, who, with unexampled zeal, continued to almost the last moment of his life to accumulate materials for perfecting his works. Every practical surgeon must add the present volume to his library. Its commodious and portable form—no mean consideration,—the graphic, the almost speaking force of the unequalled illustrations, the copious addition of valuable and instructive cases, and the great improvement in clearness and precision which has been gained by the judicious arrangement of the materials, all combine to render the present edition indispensable."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

The practical surgeon who is not master of its contents cannot be fully aware of the imperfection of his own knowledge on the subject of diseases of the testicle."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

"The execution of the work sustains in every point the already high reputation of the author as an ophthalmic surgeon, as well as a physiologist and pathologist. We entertain little doubt that this book will become a manual for daily reference and consultation by the student and the general practitioner."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

A TREATISE ON RUPTURES. The Fifth Edition, considerably enlarged. 8vo. cloth, 16*s*. By Wm. Lawrence, F.R.S.

"The peculiar advantage of the treatise of Mr. Lawrence is, that he explains his views on the Anatomy of Hernia, and the different varieties of the disease, in a manner which renders his book peculiarly useful to the student. It must be superfluous to express our opinion of its value to the surgical practitioner. As a treatise on Hernia, presenting a complete view of the literature of the subject, it stands in the first rank."—Edinburgh Medical and Surgical Journal.

CLINICAL MIDWIFERY: comprising the Histories of 545 Cases of Difficult, Preternatural, and Complicated Labour, with Commentaries. Second Edition. Foolscap 8vo. cloth, 5*s*. By Robert Lee, M.D., F.R.S.

"There is no better way of teaching than that of furnishing reports of cases which have fallen under the notice of one competent to observe and record facts. The work will be found a most serviceable guide to the young accoucheur; for while it lays before him the difficulties which he may have to encounter in practice, it shows him how those difficulties are to be overcome."—Medical Gazette.

PRACTICAL SURGERY. Fourth Edition. 8vo. cloth, 22*s*. By R. Liston, F.R.S., Surgeon to the North London Hospital.

"In conclusion, it is scarcely necessary to repeat our earnest recommendation of Mr. Liston's work. Having on a former occasion expressed ourselves strongly on the subject, we can only add that the present edition is, as it should be, even more worthy of our praise than its predecessors. It is a guide to the advanced student, and, as suggesting practical observations of the highest value to the practitioner, it is unsurpassed."—British and Foreign Medical Review.

"We acknowledge and have pride in bearing testimony to the high qualifications of our countryman in the branch of pathological inquiry based upon chemical facts; we recognize the comprehensive sagacity of his speculations, and respect the patient zeal with which he has toiled to erect upon these a stable system,—the important connection between a large number of disordered states of the urinary secretion and disordered states of the process of digestion and assimilation. . . . OBSTINATE ULCERS ON THE LEG. A Simple and Economical Mode of Treating them; with a Survey of the various Methods suggested for the Cure of Varicose Veins. Post 8vo. 5s. By H. T. Chapman, F.R.C.S., late Surgeon to the St. George's and St. James's Dispensary.

"We have adopted this plan of treating chronic ulcers of the leg, both in hospital and private practice, and have much satisfaction in stating that, in the generality of cases, we succeeded in accomplishing with it a rapid and inexpensive cure. In no case treated by us did the slightest cutaneous irritation or inflammation ensue; and of the method of treatment we entertain the highest opinion on account of its cleanliness, facility of application, economy, and soothing support."—Dublin Quarterly Journal of Medicine and Science, August 1849.

THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF OBSTETRIC Medicine and Surgery, in reference to the Process of Parturition. Illustrated with One Hundred and Ten Plates on Steel and Wood; forming one thick handsome volume. Second Edition. 8vo. cloth, 22s. By Dr. F. H. Ramsbotham, Physican to the Royal Maternity Charity, &c.

"The work of Dr. Ramsbotham may be described as a complete system of the principles and practice of Midwifery; and the author has been at very great pains indeed to present a just and useful view of the present state of obstetrical knowledge. The illustrations are numerous, well selected, and appropriate, and engraved with great accuracy and ability. In short, we regard this work, between accurate descriptions and useful illustrations, as by far the most able work on the principles and practice of Midwifery that has appeared for a long time. Dr. Ramsbotham has contrived to infuse a larger portion of common sense and plain unpretending practical knowledge into his work than is commonly found in works on this subject; and as such we have great pleasure in recommending it to the attention of obstetrical practitioners."—Edinburgh Medical and Surgical Journal.

Third Edition. 32mo. cloth, 2s. 6d. By E. Shaw, M.R.C.S.

The Medical Times,

Published Weekly, price Sevenpence; or Stamped Eightpence.

Annual Subscription, if pre-paid, £1. 5s.; or Stamped, £1. 10s., and regularly forwarded to all parts of the Kingdom and the Colonies.

THE MEDICAL TIMES commenced a new and improved Series the first week in July, 1850. It has now attained a circulation and an influence honourable to Periodical Literature. Men of the highest rank in the Profession have given their support to the Journal, and by their contributions greatly enhanced its value. The stated co-operation of Gentlemen resident in various parts of the Kingdom, the Colonies, and Foreign Countries has been secured, justifying the Publisher in stating that the Medical Times will be found faithfully and zealously to reflect the Progress of Medical Science throughout the civilized world; and thus to enable the busily-occupied Practitioner to inform himself of every improvement in his Profession—literary, scientific, and practical.

On commencing the New Volume for 1851, the Publisher hopes, under the very able conduct of the Editor, to offer several Series of Papers of great value.

Dr. LETHEBY'S Lectures will be continued on the Chemistry of the Poisons, which promise, when completed, to form a text-book of Medical Jurisprudence for the Practitioner called upon to give evidence before the Courts of Law.

The admirable Lectures of PROFESSOR OWEN, delivered before the Royal College of Surgeons, will also be continued.

An important and Practical Series of Papers on the Diagnosis and Diseases of the Ear, by JOSEPH TOYNBEE, F.R.S., will elucidate important investigations into the cause and treatment of Deafness.

A Clinical Lecture by LAWRENCE, BRANSBY COOPER, STANLEY, LLOYD, FERGUSSON, QUAIN, BURROWS, or BARKER, will be given weekly. These names are a sufficient guarantee that the Lectures will convey that practical information which experience, conjoined with great talent, can alone supply.

The Hospital Reports, by men of repute, and in connection with the Medical Officers of the various Institutions, will be, as heretofore, distinguished by their fidelity, and by the value of the remarks appended to the cases, and form a weekly record of the London practice of Medicine and Surgery.

As proof that the Reviews and Notices of Books will be full and impartial, the Publisher appeals, with confidence, to the past.

At this moment the subject of Public Health engages the attention of all educated men; but, in particular, of the members of the Medical and Clerical Professions. It is, therefore, with extreme pleasure the Publisher announces that Professor Guy, of King's College, will publish in the Medical Times a Series of Lectures which he has lately delivered upon this important subject. This course will be found to contain matter of grave moment, and of deep interest, to the Medical Profession.

Microscopical Anatomy, normal and pathological, now occupies so important a position in relation to the science of Medicine, that the Editor has been anxious to offer the readers of the Medical Times a Series of Papers exhibiting the present state of knowledge on that subject. The Publisher is happy to announce the accomplishment of those wishes; and that in a manner most gratifying to the Profession. Mr. Quekett, well known not only in this country, but throughout the scientific world, as the most able microscopist of the day, has promised for this Journal a Series of Papers on Microscopical Anatomy. No expense will be spared to render the numerous illustrative drawings faithful representations of Mr. Quekett's beautiful preparations.

A Series of Clinical Reports, with Observations, by Dr. Baly, F.R.S., Physician to the Millbank Penitentiary.

Digitized by Google

Those arrangements which have, during the last six months, supplied the readers of the Medical Times with the best and latest Foreign and Provincial Intelligence will be continued, but on an extended scale. The Abstracts from Foreign Journals will be as full as they have been during the past year; and the Medical Times will continue to produce, as heretofore, an epitome of the progress of Medical Science on a scale which no other Journal has attempted even to rival.

New inventions of every kind bearing on Medicine or Surgery will be laid before the Profession, and engage during the ensuing year especial attention; and arrangements are already in progress for the publication in the Medical Times of descriptions and drawings of those Surgical instruments which may be forwarded to the Exhibition of 1851, and which shall appear to be of sterling worth.

A few words as to Politics. The object of the Medical Times has been to obtain enactments tending to advance practically the interests of all, and the general usefulness of the Profession; one member of the political body Medical cannot suffer without the whole Profession being injured. Efforts, therefore, will still be made to resist every attempt to advance the interests of the few at the expense of the many, or to sacrifice the few simply for the purpose of propitiating the favours of the many.

Finally, the Profession may rest assured that the Medical Times will continue to be distinguished by its high moral tone, and freedom from personal attacks.

MEDICAL DIRECTORY.

The Proprietor of the MEDICAL DIRECTORY respectfully notifies to the Profession that the business of that work will henceforth be conducted at

No. 4, ADAM STREET, ADELPHI,

to which address it is requested that communications for the future may be sent.

Mr. C. J. HARRIS, a gentleman connected with the work during the last two years, is appointed by the Proprietor to be the medium of communication between the Profession and the Editors of the Directory, and will be in attendance at the offices from ten till four o'clock daily.

MEDICAL AGENCY.

Mr. HARRIS, with the sanction of the Proprietor of the MEDICAL DIRECTORY, begs to offer his services to the Profession in the transaction of Medical Agency in all its branches. The facilities of conducting Medical Agency promptly and successfully in connexion with the Medical Directory cannot be questioned. The enormous correspondence involved in its compilation, and the constant personal intercourse going on with members of the profession, offer unrivalled advantages for making known their wants and requirements in regard to the transfer of medical property. In availing himself of these advantages, Mr. Harris pledges himself to entertain only the best class of Medical Agency business, and that all his transactions shall be conducted bonâ fide, with a due regard to the interests of all parties concerned; in fact, he will undertake none into which he has not himself been permitted to make the most searching inquiry. Independently of its being in accordance with his own views as to the mode in which alone Medical Agency can be conducted satisfactorily and honourably, Mr. Harris begs to observe, that it is only from the high ground he proposes to take, the privilege of conducting Medical Agency business in connexion with the Directory has been conceded to him by the Proprietor of that work.

PREFACE.

In presenting the sixth volume of the Medical Directory to our subscribers, we feel called upon to offer a few remarks. Fully conscious of the labour and care that have been bestowed on its compilation, and grateful for the very ready and kind assistance rendered by the profession generally, we do so with greater pleasure and confidence than on any former occasion, assured that the work will be found to approach nearer to correctness than any of its predecessors. In relation to the contents of the present volume, we beg to call attention to the subjoined editorial regulations, as they will afford an explanation on many points that may otherwise appear inconsistent or unsatisfactory to some of our friends, and thus save an unnecessary correspondence:—

1st. Names in the body of the work, or general list, with an asterisk(*), will not be found in the London Street or Provincial Local List. Those so marked, it must be understood, have not made a return of their qualifications; being unable to identify them in the lists of the licensing bodies, we could not give them with certainty. (See pages 35 and 285.)

2nd. Gentlemen who have returned two addresses, will find them both given in the General List, but only the first in the Street and Local List. This is done to avoid making the number of names appear more than they really are.

3rd. The Poor Law Medical Staff has been omitted, as we feel, in common with many of our correspondents, that the list is only correct for a limited period, in consequence of the appointments generally not being permanent, and the new ones taking place immediately after the publication of the Directory. We have, however, given them after the names of those gentlemen who have returned them; but we beg to observe, that past union appointments have been purposely omitted, and will be so in future editions.

Digitized by Google

4th. On mature reflection, and in accordance with the opinion of the profession generally, we decided on not giving the particular department of practice each gentleman follows, as it is felt that the qualifications appended to each is a sufficient indication as to whether he is practising as Physician, Surgeon, or General Practitioner; and, accordingly, these designations have been omitted.

5th. The vast amount of information obtained through the plan adopted in the last annual circular, has greatly contributed to the correctness of the present volume; but we beg to observe, that in some cases the illegibility and crowded state of the writing prevented our making use of it; and the same remark will explain the reason of some omissions and errors in titles, contributions, &c. &c.: also some corrections in circulars that were returned to us too late we have been unable to notice;—we name this to prevent its being supposed that the communications of our correspondents were neglected or not appreciated.

6th. In no case will the M.D. be found appended to a name without the university being also given whence it was derived; and gentlemen who have omitted to return us this information, must not feel surprised at finding the designation not entered. In cases where it may be omitted in Street or Local List, we shall esteem it a favour to have our attention called to it in the next annual circular.

In a work of such magnitude, presenting difficulties in its compilation that few of our readers can imagine, and which we cannot here explain, will, we trust, show the importance of system and method, and induce the profession to adopt the following rules, which will materially aid us in our labours, and contribute to its correctness and uniformity:—

1st. To read the Annual Circular before proceeding to fill it up.

2nd. The Annual Circular will be posted to every gentleman whose name appears in the work during the first week in August, and will contain the printed statement of his name, qualifications, &c., as it appeared in the current edition; and in all cases where it at once reaches the party to whom it is addressed, we beg the favour of its being immediately returned; but in case of absence from home, immediately on return.

3rd. Should the printed statement be correct, and no alteration desired, let the word "correct" be written on the line just under the printed form; if it contains any errors, simply draw the pen through them, and write the correction in the place assigned: for instance, if the Surname is spelt wrong and the Christian right, draw the pen through the surname only, and write it legibly on the line against "Name," without remark or touching the Christian name; the same plan holds good throughout. In other words, we do not wish anything written in the form that is already correctly given in the printed slip, but only corrections and fresh matter.

4th. Should the space allowed be insufficient, the new matter should be accommodated to it, or finished on a fresh piece of paper; we prefer the former, but our chief object is LEGIBILITY. The same remark applies to the page allotted for general corrections.

5th. All corrections on the last mentioned sheet, we beg particularly to request may be made in every case only in reference to the current edition of the Directory. In fact, unless this is complied with, the corrections become useless, and retard rather than forward our labours.

6th. As we are obliged to adopt the strictest system in our arrangements, we have to beg that one gentleman will not draw up his return on another's Circular: in all cases we prefer sending a fresh one, as the names can then be put under their respective letters of the alphabet, and be readily referred to.

7th. Names cannot be entered without an address being given.

8th. Gentlemen are requested to reserve any corrections, remarks, &c., until they receive the Annual Circular, in August, and not send them by letter at the beginning of the year, as by so doing we frequently get the same matter twice over from the same party. We have therefore introduced a few blank pages at the commencement of the present volume, on which corrections can be entered, and which can be copied on the Circular in August.

9th. The information required is—1st. Names of gentlemen in the present volume who have died; 2nd. Any whose qualifications are incorrectly given; 3rd. Practitioners whose names are not in the Directory; if known, with Christian name and qualifications; 4th. Those who have left; and if known, where gone. We hope nothing savouring of a doubt on these points will be returned to us, but only the most positive information.

10th. For the sake of the correctness of the work, it is hoped that gentlemen who have retired will, nevertheless, return the Annual Circular for the insertion of their names; and we beg to observe, that those gentlemen who have requested their omission on that account, will find that the word "retired" is entered after their names instead of omitting them, which, for obvious reasons, would be objectionable.

11th. With regard to contributions it may be remarked, that, for want of space, we are reluctantly compelled to limit the number to three: when, therefore, three fresh ones are sent, the three already inserted will be omitted.

12th. Published works are given without regard to number. Serial papers and courses of lectures are also entered without restriction.

We have now endeavoured, in as concise a manner as possible, to lay down a few of the rules which guide us in the compilation of the work, which it is right should be known to our subscribers and the profession generally.

The better to carry out our plans for the future, suitable and commodious offices have been engaged at No. 4, Adam Street, Adelphi, where, for the future, Mr. Harris will give every information, either to personal applications, or by letter. Communications are received also at our publisher's, (Mr. John Churchill,) 46, Princes Street, Soho.

SAVINGS' BANKS.—An examination of the amount of Savings' Banks will show the deposits in England, Wales, and Ireland, proportioned to the population, amounted in 1821 to 12*s.* 8*d.* per head; in 1836 to 16*s.* 4*d.*; in 1841 to 19*s.* 10*d.*; and in 1848 to 20*s.* 11*d.* In Scotland the deposits were in 1836, 7*d.* per head; 1841, 4*s.* 8*d.*; 1848, 7*s.* 5*d.* The largest amount of these savings occurred in 1846, when they reached in England to £26,759,817; Wales, £674,657; Scotland, £1,383,866; Ireland, £2,234,910; in all, £31,743,250; being equal to 24*s.* per head on the population of England, Wales, and Ireland, and 10*s.* 1*d.* per head on that of Scotland. The diminution in 1847 and 1848 is clearly he result of the high prices of provisions, and consequent falling off in wages, aused by the potato rot and its attendant circumstances.

AN INSTANCE OF THE VALUE OF LIFE ASSURANCE very recently occurred, says a contemporary, (and which was related to us by the medical attendant of the family of the party,) showing the great uncertainty of life and the necessity of, as far as possible, securing by assurance, against the pecuniary difficulties attendant on sudden death. A gentleman, residing in London, and who, during a long series of years, enjoyed uninterruptedly good health, at the suggestion of his friend, to whom we have already adverted, assured his life with a London office for £5000. Upon the Sunday next following the completion of the policy, and whilst taking his usual walking exercise, he ruptured a blood-vessel, which resulted in death within forty-six hours.

THE STAMP DUTIES.

The late alteration in the Stamp Duties is a matter of much interest to Building Societies and to Freehold Land Societies. To many persons purchasing small properties the expense of the conveyance has amounted to one-third of the purchase-money. This was an undoubted hardship, and operated as a check upon the saving habits of the people. We subjoin a list of the Stamp Duties as they now stand, and as they will be affected under the change which comes into operation on the 10th of October next.

A comparative view of Stamp Duties now payable upon conveyances and mortgages, and those which will be payable after the 10th day of October next.—

From the above statements it will be seen that, under the new act, every member of a Freehold Land Society whose allotment does not cost more than £50 will save upon his conveyance £1 10*s.* out of £1 15*s.*, the new duty being only 5*s.*; and upon his mortgage 18*s.* 9*d.* out of £1, the new duty being only 1*s.* 3*d.*; and there will be this additional advantage under the new law, that large transactions will pay the same rate of duty as small ones, which they do not under the present law. A conveyance for £1,000,000, under the present law, pays £1,000 duty; under the new law it will pay £500.

SOCIAL AND SANITARY STATISTICS.

Marriages in England are as one person in 130.
The average number of children to a marriage is four.
Of legitimate children in Europe there are about 106 males to 100 females.
Of illegitimate children in Europe there are about 100 males to 98 females.
Illegitimate children in Europe are as one to 13 legitimate.
The illegitimacy of large cities is twice that of rural districts.
The number of children born dead in Europe is 1 to 40 of the whole population.
The number of children born dead in large cities is 1 in every 20 of the whole population.
In Great Britain the expectation of life at birth is 41 years and 7 months.
Abundance of food increases births and marriages, and decreases deaths.

From the above facts some important deductions may be drawn. It appears that morals are much lower in cities than among a scattered population, as the illegitimacy is twofold in towns to what it is in rural places. It is also well worthy of notice that in crowded cities health is less prevalent than in smaller towns and villages, the number of children born dead being in the former twice as great as the latter, a strong argument for sanative reform. Another important fact is also elicited, that scarcity and high prices of food decimate the population by decreasing the marriages, whilst it also superinduces illegitimate births; on the contrary, abundance of food and employment promote marriages and births, and thereby decreases illegitimacy, and increases the morality and social prosperity of a people.

CONSUMPTION OF BREAD.

Estimating that there are 24 millions of bread consumers in Great Britain and Ireland (leaving out the four millions of potato-eaters), and allowing each person one and a half loaf per week, it is thirty-six millions of loaves. Admitting that each quarter of wheat makes 136 loaves of bread, it requires 168,656 quarters of wheat per week. To this add ten per cent. for flour used in other articles, and it gives 295,521 qrs. as the weekly consumption of wheat, or 15,367,092 qrs. annually. London and its suburbs, with its two millions of population, consume three million loaves weekly, and with flour, require 24,626 qrs. of wheat. A quarter of wheat will give 56lbs. of flour per bushel, of the quality which makes best seconds bread, 4001bs. altogether; and that quantity of flour will make 134 quartern loaves. A quartern of wheat, ground into flour, and taking out only the rough bran, say about 8lbs. to the bushel, will yield 58lbs. per bushel of such flour, and that will make 141 loaves the quarter. A quarter of wheat ground down into rough meal, without taking any bran, will give 62lbs. or 63lbs. of meal, and that will make about 166 loaves of healthy good brown bread.

THE

THE EDITORS request most earnestly that Gentlemen will every year be kind enough to return the "CIRCULAR" immediately on its receipt, without reference to whether they may have any alteration to make or not; the accuracy of the DIRECTORY depending on the Annual Returns being carefully made.

An asterisk (*) is prefixed to the names of those persons practising the medical profession in or near London, who have not made any return of the nature of their qualifications, in reply to repeated applications, and whose names cannot be identified in the list of members of the University of London; of the Royal College of Physicians, London; of the Royal College of Surgeons of England; or of the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries, London.

The Editors beg to submit, that while they regret Gentlemen who may be legally qualified should experience the annoyance of being so marked, it must be owned that it arises from their omitting to return the Circular, sent expressly to obtain the information this work is intended to afford, and it is hoped every Gentleman will supply his qualifications for correct entry in next year's (1852) Directory.

President, John Ayrton Paris.—Elects, Thomas Turner, Thomas Hume, Clement Hue, John Bright, Edward Thomas Monro, Thomas Mayo, Henry Herbert Southey.—Censors, Thomas Mayo, Henry Jeaffreson, Thomas Alfred Barker, George Hilaro Barlow.—Treasurer, Edward Thomas Monro.—Registrar, Francis Hawkins.—Curators of the Museum, The President, the Censors, James Alderson, James Arthur Wilson, George Budd, Golding Bird.—Secretary, Robert L. Rawes.

The College of Physicians is entitled by Charter to prevent any one from practising as a physician in London, and within seven miles thereof, who has not submitted to its examination. The Licentiates enjoy the same privileges as the Fellows, so far as practice is concerned, but they have no share in the direction of the affairs of the College. The Fellows are now chosen from the body of Licentiates, a certain number being generally elected on the 25th of June of each year.

The only legal Physicians in other parts of England and Wales are the Licentiates and Extra-Licentiates of the College of Physicians of London, and Licentiates of Oxford and Cambridge. Extra-Licentiates are entitled to practise only beyond seven miles from London. Candidates for the Licence, or Extra Licence, are required to prove, by producing proper Testimonials, before they can be admitted to examination, that they have had the advantage of a liberal education, both general and professional. But the College gives no particular rules as to the detail of previous education, or places at which it is to be obtained, and in announcing to the profession this signal alteration in its mode of electing Licentiates, makes use of the following terms:—"The College has endeavoured fairly to look at that which is substantial, rather than that which is nominal, in all that concerns the qualifications of its members; it has resolved to estimate all testimonials, whether presented as Certificates, Diplomas, or Degrees, strictly with reference to their value, and to measure them by this standard alone, as parts of the previous qualifications of Candidates, which are to be verified in their examinations."

The EXAMINERS for the Licence are the Censors. The examination for the Licence takes place four times a year; viz., shortly before Christmas, Easter, Midsummer, and Michaelmas. The Examiners for the Extra Licence are the Elects. The examination for the Extra Licence is held about the same time as that for the Licence.

FEES.—Licence, 50*l.* 17*s.* including 15*l.* stamp. Fellowship, 55*l.* 1*s.* including 25*l.* stamp. Extra Licence, 24*l.* 18*s.*

The Lectures are delivered between Christmas and Easter, commencing generally in February. They are delivered on Wednesdays and Fridays, at 4 P.M., in the following order:—

The Gulstonian Lectures ..... 3 Lectures.
The Croonian ditto ..... 3 Lectures.
The Lumleian ditto ..... 3 Lectures.
Lectures on Materia Medica ..... 6 Lectures.

The Harveian Oration is delivered annually about the 25th of June, at 4 P.M.

REGULATIONS REGARDING CERTIFICATES AND TESTIMONIALS.

Every Candidate for a Diploma in Medicine, upon presenting himself for examination, shall produce satisfactory evidence—

1. Of unimpeached moral character.
2. Of having completed the twenty-sixth year of his age; and
3. Of having devoted himself for five years, at least, to the study of medicine.

The course of study thus ordered by the College comprises:—

Anatomy and Physiology; the Theory and Practice of Physic; Forensic Medicine; Materia Medica and Botany; and the Principles of Midwifery and Surgery.

With regard to practical medicine, the College considers it essential that each candidate shall have diligently attended, for three entire years, the Physician's practice of some General Hospital in Great Britain or Ireland, containing at least 100 beds, and having a regular establishment of Physicians as well as Surgeons.

Candidates who have been educated abroad will be required to show that, in addition to the full course of study already specified, they have diligently attended the Physician's practice in some General Hospital in this country, for at least twelve months.

Candidates who have already been engaged in practice, and have attained the age of forty years, but have not passed through the complete course of study above described, may be admitted to examination, provided they can prove, to the satisfaction of the College, that, virtually, they possess the qualifications which the regulations described above were intended to ensure.

The first examination is in Anatomy and Physiology, and is understood to comprise a knowledge of such propositions in any of the physical sciences as have a reference to the structure and functions of the human body.

The second examination includes all that relates to the causes and symptoms of Diseases, and whatever portions of the collateral sciences may appear to belong to these subjects.

The third examination relates to the treatment of diseases, including a scientific knowledge of all the means used for that purpose.

The three examinations are held at separate meetings of the Censors' Board. The vivâ voce part of each is carried on in Latin, except when the Board deems it expedient to put questions in English, and permits answers to be returned in the same language.

The College is desirous that all those who receive its Diploma should have had such a previous education as would imply a competent knowledge of Greek, but it does not consider this indispensable, if the other qualifications of the candidate prove satisfactory; it cannot, however, on any account, dispense with a familiar knowledge of the Latin language, as constituting an essential part of a liberal education: at the commencement, therefore, of each oral examination, the candidate is called on to translate vivâ voce into Latin a passage from Hippocrates, Galen, or Aretæus; or, if he declines this, he is, at any rate, expected to construe into English a portion of the works of Celsus, or Sydenham, or some other Latin Medical Author.

Digitized by Google

In connexion with the oral examinations, the candidate is required on three separate days, to give written answers in English to questions on the different subjects enumerated above, and to translate, in writing, passages from Greek or Latin books relating to medicine.

Those who are approved of at all these examinations will receive the following diploma, under the common seal of this College.

Sciant omnes, Nos. A. B. Presidentum Collegii Medicorum Londinensis, uno cum consensu Sociorum ejusdem, auctoritate nobis a Domino Rege et Parliamento commissâ examinâsse et approbâsse ornatissimum virum, T. S. et ei concessisse liberam facultatem et licentiam tam docendi quam exercendi scientiam et artem medicam, eidemque summis honoribus et titulis et privilegiis, quæcunque hic vel alibi Medicis concedi solent, intra auctoritatis nostræ limites frui dedisse. In cujus rei fidem et testimonium, adjectis Censorum et Registrarii chirographis, sigillum nostrum commune præsentibus apponi fecimus, datis ex ædibus Collegii die mensis anno Domini millesimo octingentisimo.

Censores.
Registrarius.

No Fellow or Licentiate may consult with any one acting as a Physician in London, or within seven miles thereof, except he be a Fellow or Licentiate of the College, under the penalty of 5*l.*

Rejected candidates are not re-admissible to examination under a year from the date of their rejection.

Unqualified persons practising are to be admonished. "Qui monitum hoc neglexerit, legibus regni obnoxius erit."

Several of the penal statutes are of a stringent character, and, though rarely acted on, and only in very flagrant cases, should be generally known.

If any Fellow or Licentiate can be proved, to the satisfaction of the President and Censors, to have wilfully accused any other Fellow or Licentiate of professional ignorance, unless it be before the legally-constituted judges, he shall be fined 4*l.* for the first offence, and 8*l.* for the second: if he offend a third time, if a Fellow, he shall be expelled, and if a Licentiate fined 10*l.* This last fine is to be enforced every time afterwards the Licentiate shall so offend. If any Fellow or Licentiate shall offer his professional assistance to any patient whom he shall know to be under the care of another Physician, whether Fellow or Licentiate, without having been called in to see the patient professionally, he shall be fined 40*s.* If any Fellow be proved to have made any arrangement with a druggist, to share with him the proceeds in his prescriptions, he shall be expelled; if a Licentiate have entered into a similar arrangement, he shall be fined 10*l.* every time he shall so offend. Every Physician, whether Fellow or Licentiate, shall attach to each prescription which he writes the day of the month, the name of the sick man, and his own initials. When a consultation takes place, it is to be carried on with modesty, not in the presence of the sick; and if any difference of opinion occurs, it is to be stated with prudence and moderation, so that it may not be noticed by the patient or the friends, but if requisite, should be mentioned by the ordinary medical attendant. Whoever infringes these regulations, will be fined 5*l.* by the President and Censors. No Fellow or Licentiate may consult, in London, or within seven miles thereof, with a Physician who does not belong to the College, under a penalty of 5*l.* All Fines to be paid immediately. The president and Court of the College have the power of committing individuals contemning their authority to Newgate; and this power has been exercised by the Court, but not of late years.

STUDENTSHIPS IN ANATOMY.

ORDINANCES.—There shall be two Studentships of the College in Human and Comparative Anatomy, to be held by each Student for the term of two years, at a salary of One Hundred Pounds per annum.

Candidates shall be Members of the College, under twenty-six years of age.

The Council shall determine annually whether one or more of such appointments shall take place during the current year, and shall notify its resolution by public advertisement.

Digitized by Google

The appointment shall be made in the month of June, or as soon after as possible.

The Students shall be subject to such duties and restrictions as the Council from time to time shall direct; and in case of misconduct shall be liable to dismissal.

REGULATIONS.—The Studentships have been instituted for the cultivation and extension of Human and Comparative Anatomy and Physiology, by means of the opportunities afforded at the College in the preservation and enlargement of the Museum, and in the various scientific labours connected with that department.

The Students are therefore required to devote their whole time to the study of Anatomy, Physiology, and the connected Branches of Knowledge, and to the service of the College in the Museum.

They shall not undertake any other employment, such as that of Demonstrator, Lecturer, or Teacher; nor shall they engage in private practice, either as Principal or Assistant; and they shall avoid all appearance of practising by not designating their Profession on the doors of their residences.

They shall be employed at the College in such manner as shall be pointed out by the Conservators, whose directions they shall in all instances obey, referring to them in all matters on which they may entertain doubts.

They shall not be absent from their duties in the Museum (except in the case subsequently specified) without the permission of the Conservators; nor shall they leave London without permission of the President and the knowledge of the Chairman of the Museum Committee.

They shall attend to their duties in the College from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., daily, except on Sunday, and on one other day in each week, on which they are allowed to visit their respective Hospitals, and to read in the Library of the College. On particular occasions, when the business of the Museum shall require it, they shall attend, under the directions of the Conservators, earlier or later than the hours above-mentioned.

Each Student is also required to attend in the Museum, for the purpose of giving information to visitors, one day in each week from 12 to 4 o'clock, and on any other day when the Conservators, with the sanction of the Museum Committee, shall so direct.

They shall record, in books provided for that purpose, the histories of their respective dissections and the particulars of their other occupations in the College; and they shall lay such books before the Museum Committee at least once a month.

It is expected that they make themselves familiar with everything relating to the practical study of Anatomy, such as the use of the microscope, the dissection of small animals, the art of preserving animal substances, of injecting and putting up anatomical preparations.

It is also hoped that they will devote a portion of each evening to the perusal of works on Anatomy and Physiology, and on the auxiliary Branches of Knowledge.

As evidence of age, a copy of the baptismal register will be required in every case where it can possibly be procured.

3. Of good moral conduct:

† By Practical Chemistry is intended a specific course of instruction in the laboratory, with an opportunity of personal manipulation in the ordinary processes of Chemistry, and of acquiring a knowledge of the various reagents for poisons.

The above course of study may be extended over a longer period than three winter and two summer sessions, provided the Lectures and Medical Practice are attended in the order prescribed.

No Lecturer will be recognised by the Court who is not connected with a recognised medical school; or who teaches on more than two branches of medical science; nor until he has produced very satisfactory testimonials of his attainments in the science he purposes to teach, and of his ability as a teacher thereof, from at least two persons of acknowledged talents and distinguished acquirements in the particular branch of science in question; and also given a public course of lectures on the subject he purposes to teach; but if, after such preliminary course, the Lecturer shall be recognised, certificates of attendance on that course will be received.

Satisfactory assurance must also be given that the Teacher is in possession of the means requisite for the full illustration of his lectures—viz., that he has, if lecturing—

On Chemistry, a laboratory and competent apparatus.

On Materia Medica, a museum sufficiently extensive.

On Botany, a hortus siccus, plates or drawings, and recent plants.

The Certificates of Teachers recognised by the constituted Medical authorities in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Aberdeen, as also those of the medical professors in foreign universities, are received by the Court.

Much inconvenience having arisen from the presentation of schedules signed by Lecturers unknown to the Court, it is particularly requested that the Registrars of the Medical Schools will furnish a correct list of their recognised Teachers to the Secretary of this Court at the commencement of every Winter Session.

the Army, as to their Professional Qualifications for the Service. In addition to the subjects mentioned in the subjoined Regulations which are imperative, they are expected to be particularly well acquainted with—1st, Tropical diseases, and diseases to which Soldiers are most liable; 2nd, Military Surgery; 3rd, Diseases of the Eye; 4th, Cutaneous Diseases; Willan's Classification of this branch of Medicine, and Cullen's Nosology of Diseases, are referred to, because the Army Medical Returns are made in conformity with their modes of nosological arrangement. They are required to translate, vivâ voce, a passage from a Greek or Latin author, to have in their possession the most approved modern books on the various branches of Medicine and Surgery: those which are commonly met with in the Service are the Works of Hunter, Hennen, Guthrie, Cooper, Milligan, Ballingall, and Marshall on Examination of Recruits and Invalids; and those of Chisholm, Gregory, Bancroft, Blane, Burnet, Johnstone, and Annesley; and Mason Good, on Medicine and Diseases peculiar to warm Climates. They are required to produce such works, with their names inscribed therein, in order the better to satisfy the Examiner that they are bonâ fide their own property. Blank forms to the following effect must be filled up at least to the extent of regulations, and sent in one clear week before the Candidate can be admitted for Examination.

Form of Certificate.—I, (Name, Christian name and Surname at full length,) Years of Age, a Candidate for employment in the Medical Department of the Army, do hereby attest my readiness to engage for general Service, whether at Home or Abroad, and to proceed on Duty immediately on being gazetted. I declare my age not to exceed Twenty-six Years; that I am unmarried, and that I labour under no mental nor constitutional disease, nor physical debility, that can interfere with the most efficient discharge of the duties of a Medical Officer. (Signature.)

I have pursued the undermentioned Course of Study, of which I am ready to produce the Vouchers for registry, and also a Certificate of my Age; namely, I possess Certificates of regular attendance of the undermentioned Hospitals and Course of Lectures for the number of months stated (specifying as to Hospitals after the following Form):—

The	Hospital or Infirmary	Months.
The	Hospital for Mental Derangement, for	Months.
The	Hospital for Diseases of the Eye, for	Months.
The	Lying-in Hospital, for	Months.

And in reference to Certificates specifying the Lectures, Name of the Lecturer, Place where the Lectures were delivered, and period in months of attendance, of all the Courses required by Regulations, with any others in addition which he may possess. If in possession of a Degree, stating the College, University, &c., and date of graduation.

Qualifications.—1. In selecting from among the Candidates for the Medical Department of the Army, a preference is given to those who can fill up all the blanks in a given Form, by having their acquirements there stated; but the name of no gentleman can be placed on the List who does not possess the Diploma of either of the Colleges of Surgeons of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, and who cannot produce the following Testimonials: 18 Months' attendance at an Hospital of celebrity, where the average number of In-patients is not less than 100; 24 Months' Anatomy; 12 Months' Practical Anatomy, 12 Months' Surgery, or (what is preferred) 6 Months' Surgery and 6 Months' Military Surgery; 8 Months' Clinical Surgery, a complete Course of two or three Lectures during the Week; 12 Months' Practice of Physic, or 6 Months' practice of Physic and 6 Months' of General Pathology; 8 Months' Clinical Lectures on Physic, the same as required in Surgery; 12 Months' Chemistry; 6 Months' Practical Chemistry; 4 Months' Botany; 4 Months' Materia Medica; 3 Months' Practical Pharmacy, or an Apprenticeship; 6 Months' Natural History; 6 Months' Midwifery; and 6 Months' Natural Philosophy; and all Candidates for Medical Appointments are required to be conversant with Cullen's Nosology.

2. The Candidates must be unmarried, not beyond Twenty-six Years of Age, nor under Twenty-one.

3. Candidates who have had a University education, and have the Degree of A.B. or M.A., as well as that of M.D., will be preferred; but a liberal education, and a competent knowledge of the Greek and Latin languages are indispensably necessary in every Candidate.

4. The greater the attainments of the Candidates in various branches of science, in addition to competent professional knowledge, the more eligible will they subsequently be deemed for professional Service; as selections for promotions will be guided more by reference to such acquirements than to mere seniority.

5. Although the British Schools are specified, it is to be understood that Candidates who have received a regular education in approved Foreign Universities or Schools, will be admitted to examination.

6. With the exception of Practice of Physic and Clinical Medicine by one teacher, Candidates must have attended separate Lectures for each branch of science.

7. Diplomas, tickets of attendance on lectures, and certificates of regular attendance by each professor or lecturer, must be lodged at the office for examination and registry at least one week before the Candidate appears for examination, and likewise certificates of moral conduct and character—one of them by a clergyman: that of the parochial minister being desirable. Baptismal certificates are required at the same time; if the parish register cannot be resorted to, an affidavit from one of the parents, or some person who can attest the fact, will be accepted.

8. The certificates of the teacher of Practical Anatomy must state the number of subjects or parts dissected by the pupil.

9. Certificates of Lectures and attendance must be from Physicians or Surgeons of the recognised Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons in the United Kingdom, or of foreign Universities.

10. A certificate of proficiency in the Art of Cupping, from Mr. Mapleson, whose fee is 1*l.* 1*s.*

All communications are to be forwarded unsealed, under cover, to the Right Hon. the Secretary at War; with the words "Army Medical Department," at the corner, unless prepaid. Before the selected Candidates can be gazetted, they are obliged to pass through a probationary period of service, of a few months' duration, at Chatham, until a vacancy is declared; where, notwithstanding he resides at his own expense, he has to undertake his full share of all the medical duties pertaining to the establishment. This arrangement was made by the Director-General, to obviate unreasonable complaints, and to ensure that the Candidate be fit, by his capabilities and conduct, for the duties attached to the appointment.

No application, on any pretence whatever, for leave of absence will be received, every gentleman, after having passed his examination, being expected to hold himself in immediate readiness to proceed to any station to which he may be appointed. An obligation in the form of a letter is required of the Candidate to the above purport, before he is permitted to enter on his probationary service.

Assistant-Surgeons of the Army, previous to their promotion to any higher rank, must be prepared to undergo such other examination before a Board of Medical Officers as may be deemed expedient.

That they have actually attended an hospital in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Glasgow, Aberdeen, or Manchester, for two years subsequently to the age of eighteen, in which the average number of patients is not less than 150.

That they have been engaged in actual dissections of the human body twelve months; the certificate of which, from the teacher, must state the number of subjects or parts dissected by the candidate.

That they have attended lectures &c. on the following subjects, at established schools of eminence, by physicians or surgeons of the recognised Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons in the United Kingdom, for periods not less than hereunder stated; observing however that such lectures will not be admitted if the teacher should lecture on more than one branch of science, or if the lectures on anatomy, surgery, and medicine, be not attended during three distinct winter sessions of six months each.

Anatomy, (or general anatomy, 12 months, and comparative anatomy, 6 months,) 18 months.—Surgery, (or general surgery, 12 months, and military surgery, 6 months,) 18 months.—Theory of medicine. Practice of medicine—If the lectures on the theory and practice of medicine are given in conjunction, then the period required is 18 months; (6 months' lectures on pathology, if given at a university where there may be a professorship on that branch of science, will be admitted in lieu of 6 months' lectures on the practice of medicine.)—Clinical lectures at an hospital as above, (or the practice of medicine 6 months, or the practice of surgery 6 months,) 12 months.—Chemistry, (or lectures on chemistry, 3 months, and practical chemistry, 3 months,) 6 months.—Materia medica, 6 months.—Midwifery, accompanied by certificates stating the number of midwifery cases personally attended, 6 months.—Botany, (or general botany, 3 months, and medical botany, 3 months,) 6 months.

In addition to the tickets for the lectures, certificates must be produced from the professors, &c., by whom the lectures were given, stating the periods (in months) actually attended to by the candidates. The time also of actual attendance at an hospital or infirmary must be certified: and the ticket, as well as certificates of attendance, age, moral character, &c., must be produced by the candidate immediately on his being desired to appear for examination.

Although the above are the only qualifications which are absolutely required in candidates for the appointment of assistant-surgeon, a favourable consideration will be given to the cases of those who have obtained the degree of M.D. at either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Edinburgh, Dublin, Glasgow, London, or Aberdeen; or who, by possessing a knowledge of diseases of the eye, and of any branch of science connected with the profession, such as medical jurisprudence, natural history, natural philosophy, &c., appear to be more peculiarly eligible for admission into the service, observing, however, that lectures on these or any other subjects cannot be admitted as compensating for any deficiency in those required by the regulations.

By the rules of the service, no assistant-surgeon can be promoted to the rank of surgeon until he shall have served three years in the former capacity, one year of which must be in a ship actually employed at sea; and it is resolved that not any diploma or certificate of examination from either of the aforesaid royal colleges shall be admitted toward the qualification for surgeon, unless the diploma or certificate shall be obtained on an examination passed after a period of not less than three years' actual service, observing that no one can be admitted to an examination for surgeon unless he be a member of one of the above-named royal colleges.

Whenever assistant-surgeons already in the service, whose professional education may not be in accordance with the above, obtain leave to study previously to their passing for surgeon, they will be required, on their examination, to produce testimonials of their having availed themselves of the period of leave, to complete their education agreeably to these regulations.

It is also to be observed, that candidates who may be admitted into the naval medical service, must serve in whatever ships, &c., they may be appointed to; and that in the event of their being unable to do so from seasickness, their names cannot be continued on the naval medical list, nor can they, of course, be allowed half-pay.—1844.

The selected candidate for naval medical service is required, before he is gazetted, (as in the case of candidates of the like description in the army medical service,) to pass through a probationary period of one year's service,) wherein they are occupied in the same manner as when fully appointed. But the candidate receives pay, and is rated as acting assistant-surgeon, still liable, however, to be removed, precisely as in the case with the army-assistant, during an analogous period, without the preliminaries of a court martial.

NAVY DEPARTMENT.—Pay per diem: Inspectors of Hospitals and Fleets, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*; after 10 years, 2*l.* 2*s.* Deputy Inspectors, 1*l.* Surgeons are paid in all rates, according to length of their full-pay service, (reckoning

All allowances for children are discretionary.

Medical Officers are rated—Inspectors, Deputy-Inspectors, Surgeons, Assistant-Surgeons, in lieu of the former titles which have become obsolete, excepting so far as regards those who are enjoying half-pay under the old grades. Their privileges as commission-officers commence only from the date of their appointment of assistant-surgeon, which is consequent on their becoming qualified for it. [The chances of promotion, as in the army department, are very precarious; many ameliorations in the duties attended with elevation in grade, and some increase of pay, have lately taken place in the service; but in this respect it still falls short of the same department in the army. Vide "Pay of Army Departments." The greatest drawback both to promotion, and thereby to increase of pay, is constituted by those contingencies which so frequently remove the naval officer from full-pay service, and, consequently, reduce him to half-pay, which is not rated.]

ORDNANCE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT,

Woolwich.

Master-General, General The Most Noble The Marquis of Anglesey, K.G., G.C.B., and G.C.H.—Inspector-General, James Stewart, Esq., 1850.—Deputy-Inspector-General, James Verling, M.D., 1850.

The appointment of candidates for the ordnance medical department, like that of gentlemen cadets for the military service, is entirely in the patronage of the Master-General of the Ordnance, and not in that of the superior medical officers.

Candidates.—No applicant is to be received on the list of candidates before he is twenty-one, nor retained on it after he is twenty-five years of age. The age of every individual must be verified by a certificate of his baptism, if it can be procured; but if not, by a solemn declaration of one of his parents, or of some other person who can attest the date of his birth.

Qualifications.—Every candidate must bring proof of having diligently gone through the following branches of professional education:—

1. Of having served five years to a surgeon and apothecary, if educated in England; but if not, qualification in the practice of medicine and pharmacy equivalent thereto.

2. Of having attended the practice of surgery in a recognised hospital or hospitals, where clinical instruction is constantly given, for three years, three months being allowed for a vacation in each year.

3. Of having attended the undermentioned lectures:—

Anatomical lectures, demonstrations, dissections; three anatomical seasons or sessions. Morbid anatomy and pathology: one course. Lectures on the principles and practice of surgery, delivered in two distinct periods or sessions, two courses, each comprising 70 lectures, or one course of surgery and one of military surgery. Natural history or comparative anatomy; one course. Chemistry, one course of 100 lectures. Botany; one course. Materia medica and therapeutics; one course of 100 lectures. Lectures on the principles and practice of medicine; two courses, each 100 lectures, second and third winters. Medical practice, with clinical lectures, 18 months, commencing the second session; viz., 12 months in a recognised hospital, and the remaining 6 months either in a recognised hospital or a dispensary. Medical jurisprudence, with toxicology; one course of 50 lectures. Midwifery; two courses, each of 60 lectures, second and third sessions. Practical midwifery (not less than thirty cases); after the conclusion of the first course on midwifery lectures, a certificate of having passed the usual examination is to be produced. Diseases of the eye (with attendance on patients of that class); one course.

4. He must produce a diploma from either of the colleges of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin; and if not a graduated M.D. of Scotland or Ireland, after having actually passed an examination in the university where he has obtained his degree; a certificate, also, of qualification from the Society of Apothecaries in London.

It is likewise expected that candidates shall have attended establishments for the cure of diseases of the ear and skin, and for the treatment of patients affected with mental derangement.

The moral conduct and character of each individual must be certified by the gentlemen to whose care his education was confided, and also by a clergyman, who, if practicable, should be the incumbent or officiating minister of the parish in which the applicant usually resides.

The candidate is required to sign, before the Board that is appointed to examine him and to report upon his professional qualifications, a Declaration to the effect that he has no complaint whatever which can interfere with the effective performance of his duty; that he is unmarried; that he enters upon his duties with a full conviction of their importance; that he will endeavour to improve his judgment by habitual study and attention; that he is perfectly ready to perform every part of his duty in pharmacy and surgery, including the daily preparation of medicines, and the dressing of ulcers, and to undertake any duties that justly belong to his department of the service, without regard to distance or climate; that he will conciliate his brother officers, and cautiously avoid every engagement, especially of a pecuniary nature, beyond his power to fulfil.

The ordnance department, which is but a section of the army service, is of course proportionably limited in the numbers of its medical staff. Upon an average, one vacancy only occurs once in three years; it is therefore far from improbable that a candidate's name may remain on the provisional list until he becomes too old for the appointment according to the regulations.

The pay is regulated according to that of the army service in general.

HONOURABLE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S SERVICE.

DEPÔT AT WARLEY, ESSEX.—Commander, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Hay. —Surgeons, A. R. Jackson, M.D., and Mr. Westall.—Public Examiner and Inspector, Major-General Pasley.

SEMINARY AT ADDISCOMBE.—Clerk for passing Cadets and Assistant-Surgeons, T. R. Clarke, Esq., Cadet Department, East India House.—Examining Medical Officer, Dr. Scott.

The appointment of assistant-surgeons of the East India Service is in the patronage of the directors. A form of certificate printed expressly for the purpose of the blanks being properly filled and signed previously to the assistant-surgeon being nominated, can be obtained by application at the Cadet-office, East India House. Assistant-surgeons, with these certificates, duly signed by the person who obtained their nomination from the director, are desired to present themselves to Mr. T. R. Clarke, by ten o'clock in the morning, in order that they may have their nominations prepared against either the meeting of the committee, or the arrival of the nominating director.

REGULATIONS FOR THE ADMISSION OF MEDICAL GENTLEMEN INTO THE EAST INDIA COMPANY'S SERVICE AS ASSISTANT-SURGEONS FOR INDIA.

Age.—The assistant-surgeon must not be under twenty-two years, in proof of which he must produce an extract from the register of the parish in which he was born, or his own declaration, and other certificates, agreeably to forms to be obtained in the office for cadets and assistant-surgeons, East India House.

Qualification in Surgery.—The assistant-surgeon, upon receiving a nomination, will be furnished with a letter to the court of examiners of the Royal College of Surgeons, to be examined in Surgery, and their certificate will be deemed a satisfactory testimonial of his qualification: but should the assistant-surgeon be previously in possession of a diploma from the Royal College of Surgeons of London, or of the Colleges of Surgeons of Dublin or Edinburgh, or of the College and University of Glasgow, or of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, either of them will be deemed satisfactory as to his knowledge of Surgery, without any further examination. He is also required to produce a certificate from the cupper of a public hospital in London, of having acquired, and being capable of practising with proper dexterity, the art of cupping.

Qualification in Physic.—The assistant-surgeon will also be required to pass an examination by the company's examining physician in the practice of physic, in which examination will be included as much anatomy and physiology as is necessary for understanding the causes and treatment of internal diseases, as well as the art of prescribing and compounding medicines; and Dr. Scott will then require him to produce satisfactory proof of his having attended at least two courses of lectures on the practice of physic; and, above all, that he should produce a certificate of having attended diligently the practice and clinical instructions of the physicians at some general hospital in London for six months; or at some general hospital in the country (within the United Kingdom) for six months, provided such provincial hospital contains at least, on an average, 100 in-patients, and have attached to it a regular establishment of physicians as well as surgeons. No attendance on the practice of a physician at any dispensary will be admitted.

The assistant-surgeon is also required, as a condition to his appointment, to subscribe to the military or medical and medical retiring fund at his respective presidency, and also to the military orphan society, if appointed to Bengal.

The assistant-surgeon is required, by resolution of Court of the 21st of May, 1828, to apply at the office for cadets and assistant-surgeons for his orders for embarkation, and actually proceed under such orders within three months from the date of being passed and sworn before the committee for passing military appointments; he will then be furnished with an order to obtain the certificate of his appointment, signed by the secretary, for which he will pay a fee of £5 in the secretary's office.

General Caution.—Notice is hereby given, that should it be discovered at the time the assistant-surgeon is appointed, or at any subseqnent period, that his appointment has been obtained by purchase, or agreement to pay any pecuniary or valuable consideration whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, when the appointment is completed, the assistant-surgeon will not only be dismissed, and rendered ineligible to hold any situation in the East India Company's Service, under the Court's Resolution of the 9th August, 1809, but all the parties concerned in procuring the appointment surreptitiously, or in disposing of, or receiving the same under such circumstances, will subject themselves individually and collectively to a criminal prosecution for a misdemeanour, under the Act of the 49th of George the Third, cap. 126; and the Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby declare, that they will prosecute any person or persons who shall hereafter be detected in such illicit traffic.

The assistant-surgeon will receive no pay until his arrival in India—in fact, it is only then that he receives his appointment. He must pay his own passage out, which will cost him about 90*l*. During the first six months after his arrival, he is attached to the presidency garrison hospital, where he has an opportunity of obtaining some insight into the diseases peculiar to tropical climates, and of providing himself with regimental and canteen equipments, surgical instruments, &c. His pay and rank are then equal to those of a lieutenant.

Pay, per month of 30 days.—Assistant to Cavalry in garrison, 28*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.*, in the field, 30*l.* 5*s.* 10*d.*; Infantry in garrison, 18*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, in the field, 21*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* Surgeon, rank and pay of captain. Cavalry in garrison, 31*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.*, in the field, 46*l.* 12*s.* 11*d.*; Infantry in garrison, 31*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.*, in the field, 34*l.* 5*s.*

In addition to this pay, both ranks of surgeons receive some additional consideration in proportion to the number of companies of troops placed under their charge.

Superintending Surgeon (rank of lieutenant-colonel), 131*l.* 5*s.* per month; when promoted to the medical board (rank of colonel), 204*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* Besides these ordinary appointments, there is in all the establishments a certain number of garrison-surgeons and assistant-surgeons on staff-pay.

Furlough.—Unless in cases of sickness, officers are not entitled to their rotation of leave of absence under ten years of service. Assistant-surgeons on furlough receive per annum 118*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*; surgeons, 190*l.* 12*s.* Pay ceases after two years and a half of absence from India. Officers under ten years of service may have a furlough for one year, on the plea of urgent private affairs, without pay.

Retirement.—After twenty-five years' service (including three years' furlough), the officer is allowed the pay of his rank. Members of the Board, of two years' standing, (not less than twenty years in India,) are allowed 500*l.* per annum; of three years' standing, 700*l.* Superintending surgeons, under like restrictions, 300*l.* and 365*l.* per annum. All other surgeons, and assistant-surgeons, after twenty years' service, (including three for furlough,) are allowed the pay of their rank.

For the benefit of officers who have served less than three years, and are obliged to retire on account of ill health, an allowance is granted from Lord Clive's fund, provided they possess less than a specified amount of private property.

Appointments take place by rotation. The average time required to ascend the list of assistant-surgeons to the rank of full surgeon is fifteen years.

METROPOLITAN HOSPITALS AND SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE.

 Cases of great emergency require no recommendation to obtain admission into the London Hospitals. The medical officers have the privilege of fixing the days and hours of attendance.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S HOSPITAL, WEST SMITHFIELD.

Founded by Rahere, 1123.

Physicians, Dr. Hue, Dr. Roupell, Dr. Burrows.—Assistant-Physicians, Dr. F. Farre, Dr. Jeaffreson, Dr. Black.—Physician-Accoucheur, Dr. West.—Surgeons, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Stanley, Mr Lloyd.—Assistant-Surgeons, Mr. Skey, Mr. Wormald, Mr. Paget.

This hospital receives within its walls nearly 6500 in-patients annually, and its out-patients and casualties amount to nearly 80,000 annually. It contains 580 beds, of which 400 are allotted to surgical cases and diseases of the eye, and 180 to medical cases, and the diseases of women. One of the assistant-physicians sees the medical out-patients daily, between eleven and two; and one of the assistant-surgeons sees the surgical out-patients daily, between twelve and two. The casualty patients are seen at all hours in the surgery by the apothecary, house-surgeons, and dressers. Surgical operations on Saturday, at one. Dr. Roupell, Dr. Burrows, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Stanley, and Mr. Lloyd, deliver clinical lectures weekly during the summer session. A record of all important cases is kept, under the superintendence of a Registrar, Dr. Kirkes. Inspections of morbid anatomy, in the pathological theatre, as opportunities offer—of the medical cases, by Dr. Kirkes; of the surgical cases, by the house-surgeons, under the superintendence of the surgeons.

COLLEGIATE ESTABLISHMENT.

Warden, Mr. Paget.—The immediate superintendence of this establishment is entrusted to the resident warden, and its arrangements are under the control of the treasurer and a committee of governors. Students attending the practice of the hospital, or the lectures in the medical school, are admitted to residence on the recommendation of a medical officer of the hospital, which may be obtained on adducing satisfactory evidence of good moral character. A matriculation, or entrance fee of two guineas, is paid by each student on his coming into residence. Resident students dine in the hall each day, unless notice of their intention to be absent be given to the manciple before ten in the morning. They may not be absent from their rooms after twelve at night, without giving notice to the warden, and their friends must leave by that hour. No student may absent himself for a night without permission of the warden. Non-resident students can dine

The pupils of the midwifery class attend upwards of 600 women every year, as out-patients of the hospital, and have the opportunity of witnessing instrumental and difficult labours, and the cases of the diseases of women which occur in the appropriated ward of the hospital. Reports are taken of all the cases, and a weekly meeting is held for the purpose of reading and commenting upon them. Gentlemen who have attended two courses of lectures on midwifery are eligible, subject to the approval of the physicians, for the office of house-surgeon to the General Lying-in Hospital. Herborizing excursions are sometimes substituted in the summer for a lecture on botany. The classes are generally subjected to examination every week,

PRIZES AND HONORARY DISTINCTIONS.

A competition is open in each class to those students who have not received any licence or diploma qualifying them for practice, and who have not exceeded the period of four years from their first attendance on the respective classes, or on the medical or surgical practice.

Under the direction of the treasurer and almoners of the hospital, houses have been fitted up as residences for the students, and a college hall where commons are provided. The medical officers, lecturers, or non-resident students, may take any of their meals in hall by giving timely notice to the servitor. Students are admitted at the recommendation of a medical officer to the treasurer, upon signing certain regulations, and paying the entrance or matriculation fee of two guineas. The terms for rent, provisions, firing, attendance, &c., according to the rooms engaged. Students are required to take their dinner in the college hall; they are not allowed to be out of their rooms after twelve o'clock at night, without the sanction of the treasurer, nor are their friends permitted to remain with them after that hour.

SCHOOL.

Gentlemen entering at this hospital have the privilege of attending the medical and surgical practice, and all the lectures, on the payment of 40*l.* the first year, a similar sum the second, and 10*l.* for each succeeding year. The hospital having lately endowed a chair of pathology, Mr. Simon will illustrate his lectures from the patients admitted into his wards, and from the cases submitted to post-mortem examinations. The pupils attending Dr. Waller's lectures on midwifery are allowed, when qualified, to attend an unlimited number of women, previous to and at their confinement. Dr. Gregory, who lectures on the exanthemata, illustrates his observations on variola and its modifications gratuitously to the pupils attending his lectures, by clinical remarks, at the small-pox hospital, where vaccination is taught practically. Mr. Grainger lectures on physiology, and explains and exhibits the minute structure of general anatomy by means of the microscope. Mr. Macmurdo's lectures on ophthalmic surgery are free to the pupils of the surgical class. Mr. E. Saunders' lectures on dental surgery are free to the anatomical pupils. The lectures on comparative anatomy and natural history, by Dr. E. Meryon, are gratuitous to the hospital students. Mr. Rainey and Mr. J. S. Bristowe, the demonstrators, attend daily, from nine o'clock A.M., until three P.M., in the dissecting-room, which is not closed till dusk: subjects are obtained at a trifling cost. Mr. Whitfield receives pupils for pharmacy and pharmaceutical manipulation. The museum, under the direction of Mr. W. Adams and Mr. J. S. Bristowe, the curators, is open daily from twelve to four. Students have also admission to the library, botanic garden, and microscopic room, without any additional fee. The Physical Society meets, every Thursday, in the library, at seven o'clock, for the discussion of medical papers.

PRIZES AND HONORARY CERTIFICATES.

Periodical examinations are held in December, March, and July, after which the prizes and certificates of honour are publicly distributed. A scholarship for first year's men, each of the value of 20*l.* a year, and tenable for three years, will be awarded annually to the two students who shall have most distinguished themselves at the periodical examinations in descriptive and surgical anatomy and chemistry. Students can only retain the scholarships during the continuance of their studies at this hospital, and provided their conduct remains satisfactory. A scholarship of 20*l.* for the best voluntary classical and mathematical examination at the commencement of the student's hospital attendance. The house surgeons, two in number, are selected annually. They will be provided with rooms and commons in the hospital, free of expense. These appointments are awarded to gentlemen who can be recommended to the treasurer and grand committee for having distinguished themselves as dressers. They must be members of the Royal College of Surgeons, and either licentiates of the Society of Apothecaries, or graduates in medicine. The dressers, twelve in number, are selected, according to merit, from those pupils who can be recommended to the treasurer and grand committee by their attention to the wards, their success in the examinations, and by the regularity and correctness of their conduct and deportment: they are provided with rooms and commons in the hospital, free of expense, during their weeks of attendance. They hold office for six months, and enter upon their duties in January and July. Hospital apprentices can only be appointed as dressers when duly qualified, and they are not entitled to commons unless they are classed at each of the periodical examinations. The resident accoucheur is selected upon examination from those students who, being otherwise qualified, have attended the greatest number of cases. He is provided with rooms and commons in the hospital, free of expense. Qualification: good conduct, regular attendance at lectures and on the hospital practice, and to have been classed at the periodical examination.

The President's Prizes: first, to the value of ten guineas, to be awarded to the dresser, for attention and good conduct, who shall have reported most accurately the greatest number of surgical cases; second, to the value of five guineas, to be awarded to a second year's student, for the best report of medical cases taken from the physician's practice of this hospital. N.B. At least four cases must be taken from each.

The Treasurer's Prizes: first, a gold medal to be awarded to a student for general proficiency and good conduct, at the completion of his studies, who has not at the time passed his examination at the Royal College of Surgeons, or the Society of Apothecaries; second, to the value of five guineas, for the best essay read before the Physical Society.

Dr. Roots's Prize, to the value of ten guineas, for the physician's clinical clerk who shall produce the best report of not fewer than twelve medical cases which have occurred in the hospital during the preceding twelve months, each case being accompanied with notes, illustrative of its pathology, diagnosis, and treatment. N.B. At least four cases to be taken from the practice of each physician.

Two Prizes for Clinical Medicine: first, to the value of five guineas—second, to three guineas—to be awarded to the two clinical clerks who shall most correctly report the greatest number of medical cases; the ability of the clerks to be practically tested at the bedside.

Neither the same reports nor cases which have gained these prizes will entitle a candidate to compete for the president's prizes or Dr. Roots'.

One of the Governors: a prize to the value of five guineas will be awarded to the student for the best report of the ophthalmic cases which have been admitted into the hospital.

The Cheselden Medal, presented to the hospital by Mr. George Vaughan, to be annually awarded to the student who, at the end of the third year, shall have most distinguished himself in the examinations on surgical anatomy and surgery.

Prizes and certificates of honour are awarded in each of the different classes; in surgery, for the best second and third year's students; physiology and general anatomy, second and third year; midwifery, second and third year; medicine, second and third year; descriptive and surgical anatomy, first and second year; theory and practice of chemistry, first year; materia medica, first year. The prize for practical midwifery is awarded for the greatest number of cases successfully attended during the summer. The prizes for comparative anatomy, materia medica, pathology, medical jurisprudence, botany, and practical chemistry, are awarded after the students have attended their first course on either subject.

All the reports for the different prizes must be forwarded to Mr. Whitfield, the resident medical officer and secretary (sealed up, with a motto on the outside, a corresponding motto on an envelope, enclosing the name of the candidate), on or before the 1st October, 1851.

A prize of 100*l.* is offered by Richard Baggallay, Esq. (Treasurer), to be awarded, in 1851, to the best essay, including original researches, on Organic Chemistry in its relation to pathology. The subject for the essay is, "On the Chemical and Physiological Action of Mercurial Preparations."

Candidates are expected to conduct an experimental investigation, tending to elucidate—

1. What are the precise chemical or other changes which occur in the tissue, fluids, and excretions of patients under the influence of mercurial preparations; and

2. How far and in what manner these changes explain the remedial efficiency of mercury in the various results of its exhibition.

The essays must be delivered to Mr. Whitfield, resident medical officer, on or before the 31st of March, 1851, of whom may be had the conditions of competition, and all other particulars.

A five-guinea annual prize is offered by Newman Smith, Esq. (son of a late president,) for the best commentary on some one disease of the nervous system. The subject proposed for this session is on "Chorea," to be illustrated by cases occurring in the wards of this hospital. Conditions.—Any student in actual attendance at the hospital, who shall not have obtained his diploma at the Royal College of Surgeons, or the Apothecaries' Hall, above one year, will be eligible to compete for the above prize.

The essays must be forwarded to Mr. Whitfield, on or before the 30th April, 1851.

G. Macmurdo, F.R.S., Dean of the Medical School. R. G. Whitfield, Resident Medical Officer.

There will also be an ample supply of midwifery patients, not less than five hundred annually. A private class will be established for preparing students to pass the different examining boards. Terms:—five guineas. The museum possesses the required preparations for illustrating the lectures on medicine, surgery, anatomy, and physiology. This is open daily for the use of students. Resident house-pupils are free to the Lectures, and all the pupils have the choice of attending the Western, Farringdon, and Surrey Dispesaries, and the Metropolitan Free Hospital. A gratuitous course of lectures on some important branch of medicine or surgery will generally be delivered in each summer session.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHEMISTRY.

The plan upon which this institution is founded, is to associate gentlemen representing all the professions, sciences, arts, and manufactures, based upon or connected with chemistry; and by annual subscriptions, and other forms of contribution, to support a practical school of chemistry.

QUALIFICATION AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHEMISTRY.

Every annual subscriber of 2*l.* 2*s.* will be a member during the continuance of such annual subscription, and will be entitled to the scientific periodical publications issued by the college.

Every subscriber of 21*l.* or upwards, in one payment, will be a life member, and entitled to the scientific periodical publications.

Every member having paid his subscription of 21*l.* and subscribing 100*l.* additional to the building fund, in one payment, will be entitled, every second year, during his life, to a presentation for one student to work in the laboratory, for two sessions, on payment of 2*l.* per session.

Members are entitled to vote at general meetings, and to visit the laboratory, subject to such regulations as the Council may think proper to make.

THE PRACTICAL SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL.

The practical course of scientific instruction is under the direction of Dr. A. W. Hofmann, formerly assistant to Professor Liebig, and Professor Extraordinary of Chemistry in the University at Bonn.

It consists of—

I. A COURSE OF PRACTICAL ANALYSIS IN THE LABORATORY.

II. A SERIES OF LECTURES ON GENERAL CHEMISTRY.

1.—Practical Analysis in the Laboratory.—The laboratory-instruction is necessarily adapted to the previous knowledge of the student. The course usually commences with experimental exercises, calculated to make the pupil acquainted with the general properties of the simple substances.

The next subjects of his study are the analytical properties of the elements, and of their most important compounds. The knowledge thus acquired is subsequently put into practice in the performance of a series of analyses, so arranged as to lead the student, step by step, from the simplest to the most complicated cases, both of qualitative and quantitative analysis.

The fundamental studies in practical chemistry are the same for all pupils, however different the future pursuit may be to which the knowledge obtained will be applied. It is only after having mastered the most important methods of distinguishing, separating, and estimating chemical substances, and after having acquired sufficient skill and practice in experiment, that the course of each student diverges into some special line. This will of course vary with his abilities and his ultimate objects.

Each laboratory-student works independently: there are no classes. All operations are superintended by the professor and his assistants. A table, with drawers, cupboards, and shelves, is appropriated to every pupil. The institution supplies gas, fuel, and re-agents. Larger and more expensive instruments, such as air-pumps, thermometers, barometers, condensers, large evaporating dishes, &c., may be had on loan from the college. The student has to provide himself only with the apparatus specified in the appended list; he is, moreover, expected to find his own materials for original investigations.

2. Course of Lectures on General Chemistry.—This course consists of about one hundred lectures, illustrated with experiments; it embraces an exposition of the theory of chemical science, and a full account of the individual substances, with especial consideration of the processes subservient to the arts and manufactures. These lectures are intended to form a complement to the practical instruction in the laboratory.

Regulations regarding Attendance.—The collegiate year is divided into two sessions, each of twenty weeks; the winter session commencing in the first week of October, and terminating in the third week of February; the summer session beginning in the second week of March, and ending with the month of July.

The attendance is from nine in the morning till five in the afternoon, except on Saturdays, when the laboratories are closed at two o'clock.

Students are admitted to work, one, two, three, four, or six days in the week.

The course of lectures extends over two sessions; it commences in the third week of October, and continues, interrupted only by the fortnight's vacation in March, to the end of July. The lectures are delivered every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from ten to eleven o'clock.

2nd. The establishment of a high standard of education and qualification, with a satisfactory test, by efficient examinations, for every individual authorized by law to practise medicine, surgery, and midwifery.

3rd. The registration of all the qualified practitioners of medicine in actual practice in this country, and the suppression of unlawful and unqualified practice.

5th. The encouragement of friendly intercourse and social concord among the various members of the profession, and especially among the class of general practitioners.

6th. The maintenance of the interests, social respectability, and professional status of the general practitioners, and the amendment of the conflicting laws that now operate so injuriously to the repose and welfare of all classes of the profession.

7th. The formation of a body competent to negotiate with the government, in the event of the Right Honourable the Secretary of State determining to grant the general practitioners a charter of incorporation.

In order to carry out the foregoing objects, it is proposed—

1st. To adopt a comprehensive and well-considered code of laws for the government of the institution, calculated to produce harmony of sentiment and unity of action among the members, and to discourage, as far as practicable, discreditable acts in connexion with the practice of medicine.

This Society was formed in the year 1778, by Dr. Thomas Denman, Dr. Richard Dennison, Dr. Andrew Douglas, Dr. John Sims, Dr. J. Squire, Mr. William Chamberlain, and Mr. Thomas Randall, with the object of establishing a fund for relief of those Widows and Orphans of deceased Members who might need and be deserving of assistance.

The Society's affairs are managed by a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, three Treasurers, and twenty-four Directors, who are elected by the Members annually, and whose services are gratuitous.

The permanent efficiency of the Society depends on the maintenance of a due proportion between the available income, and the claims made on the funds. Computations have been made by experienced actuaries on points susceptible of calculation by way of average.

The proportion of Members whose families may become claimants for relief, scarcely admits of calculation; but the experience of sixty years has proved the wisdom and benevolence with which the Society was planned, and the prudence and efficiency with which its affairs have been conducted.

The Society is enrolled among Friendly Societies; the capital Stock, converted into sterling money, is invested in the Bank of England at compound interest, and amounts to more than 49,000*l.* More than 39,000*l.* has been distributed among persons eligible to receive relief.

99 Widows and 146 Children have been relieved since 1793. 36 Widows and 16 Children are now receiving relief, which amounts to more than 1500*l.* per annum. The Society contains—Life-Members, 224; Annual Subscribers, 128—Total, 352.

A General Court of the Members is held twice a year, viz., in April and October.

A Court of Directors is held on the third Wednesday in the months of March, June, September, and December, when Members are admitted by Ballot.

Attendance is given on the affairs of the Society till Eleven A.M. daily, and on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from Two to Three P.M., at the residence of the Secretary, from whom, and from the Collector, may be obtained laws, lists, forms of proposal, &c., on enclosing a postage-stamp for each.

THE LONDON SOCIETY:

FOR PROMOTING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND FACILITATING THE OBJECTS OF SELF-SUPPORTING DISPENSARIES, THROUGHOUT THE UNITED KINGDOM AND IRELAND.

President—The Right Hon. Earl Spencer, K.G., &c.

Vice-Presidents—The Right Hon. Lord Portman; Sir Benjamin C. Brodie, Bart., F.R.S.

Members of the Managing Council—M. L. Este, Esq., Master of the Society of Apothecaries; Mr. Bacot, Mr. Propert, Mr. Ridout.

Secretary—Mr. T. Hawker, M.R.C.S., 33, Edwards-street, Portman-sq.

We beg to direct attention to THE LONDON SOCIETY, which is founded to carry out, on as wide a field as may be practicable with the resources at its command, the establishment of Self-supporting Dispensaries, on the plan originating with Mr. H. L. Smith, of Southam, in 1818, and which has been successfully, and in every respect satisfactorily, tried in several districts of the Metropolis, and at Birmingham, Burton-on-Trent, Coventry, Derby, Grantham, Northampton, Nottingham, Newmarket, Sidmouth, Walsall, Willesbourne, and other places, under different titles, such as "Self-aiding," "Provident," "Victoria," &c.

These Self-supporting Dispensaries are founded by a small weekly subscription from numbers, whose interests are taken in charge by an Honorary Committee and a Medical Board, from which union and co-operation the best effects are realized at the smallest possible cost. The Free Members or Subscribers, when visited by sickness, may choose their own medical attendant from the staff of the Institution, and are ensured prompt attention, and all the medicines required, free of any extra charge. The same benefits are also extended to all the individuals of their families who may be entered as members of the Institution.

Such provisions are secured on terms within the means of the humblest employed labourers; and the medical staff being numerous, and dispersed in various places within the district, immediate as well as efficient aid is secured in the most urgent cases, an advantage which cannot be too highly appreciated.

The special objects of THE LONDON SOCIETY are:

1st. To collect information respecting the evil effects of indiscriminate charity on the social, moral, and physical welfare of the labouring classes.

2nd. To show the superior advantages of the Self-supporting Dispensary system, both as regards the true interests of the Profession, and the best interests of the People.

3rd. To provide the means of aiding in the establishment of such Dispensaries, wherever practicable, in the United Kingdom and Ireland, by furnishing all required information, and contributing, if necessary, to the objects, as the funds may permit.

4th. To encourage the conversion of the existing exclusively Charitable Dispensaries into Self-supporting Societies, with a fourfold extension of their benefits.

5th. To answer all inquiries for information respecting the modes of proceeding; to supply all the necessary forms, rules, and regulations for local purposes, and to act as a Central Establishment for general reference and assistance, and for the consolidation of all reports and returns; thereby to insure the fullest efficiency in the practical operations of these Societies wherever established.

MEDICAL BENEVOLENT FUND,

ESTABLISHED 1836.

President—John Baron, Esq., M.D., F.R.S., Cheltenham.
Trustees—Sir Charles Hastings, M.D., of Worcester; Drs. Baron and W. Conolly, Cheltenham; and Mr. Newnham, Farnham.
Treasurer and Honorary Secretary—William Newnham, Esq., Farnham.

An earnest appeal on behalf of this Fund is now made to the profession at large, in the confident expectation that such appeal cannot be in vain. Instituted in the year 1836, it has pursued its onward course of usefulness and efficiency; it has passed its day of small things, and now stands before the public as one of the most useful of the medical charities. Its income has increased from an average of 50*l.* a year for the past five years, to 490*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.* in the last year; and the number of cases relieved has augmented from an average of three, in the past five years, to the fearful number of forty-five cases during the last year. In the five months which have passed of the present year, twenty-five cases have been relieved, and several are now waiting for consideration,—ay, waiting for the means of relief, because the present funds are inadequate to the relief of the misery, and want, and sickness, and sorrow, and destitution, which are monthly presented to the Committee. And is it possible that such a fact can be made known to the profession at large, and not meet with a corresponding answer? Is it possible that the tear of the widowed mother—the cry of the hapless orphan, shall be heard in vain? Is it possible that the wants of the aged practitioner, disabled from practice by disease of a vital organ, shall be made known among upwards of 20,000 brethren, and that they should reply, "Be ye warmed, and be ye filled," and yet should refuse to give of their substance to supply their wants? Oh! let it not be said that the cold heart of man is inaccessible to this appeal from his starving brethren!

W. NEWNHAM, TREASURER.

THE LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL PROTECTION AND BENEVOLENT SOCIETY,

43, LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS, LONDON.

President—John Propert, Esq.

Trustees to the Society—John Bowling, Esq., Hammersmith; James Clayton, Esq., Percy-street; Nathaniel Clifton, Esq., Islington; Horatio Day, Esq., Isleworth; John Propert, Esq., New Cavendish-street; Dr. Webster, Dulwich.

Treasurer—John Ince, Esq.

Standing Counsel—William Speed, Esq., Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn.

Solicitor—John Harris, Esq., 22, Argyll-street.

Bankers—Messrs. Gosling and Sharpe, 19, Fleet street.

Superintendent—H. Foreman, Esq.

Secretary—W. Green, Esq.

Trustees to the Proposed College Building Fund—James Arthur Wilson, Esq., M.D., Dover street; Robert Lee, Esq., M.D., F.R.S., Savile-row; William Fergusson, Esq., George street, Hanover-square; John Bacot, Esq., Portugal-street, Grosvenor-square; Benjamin Phillips, Esq., F.R.S., Wimpole-street, Cavendish-square.

Treasurer to the Building Fund—Robert Gosling, Esq., 19, Fleet-street.

The objects of the Society are—

1st. To create a higher tone in the public mind towards the Medical Profession, without compromising its honour, standing, or liberal character, and to secure the more regular payment for professional services from that large class of society who possess the means, but not the disposition, to remunerate Medical Men.

2nd. To establish a fund to be devoted to the erection and support of a College for the education of sons and orphans of Medical Men, and also for the reception of distressed members of the Medical Profession or their widows.

The second, the benevolent object of this Society, will be attained by appropriating voluntary subscriptions from Members, donations of their more affluent brethren, the aid of the wealthy and benevolent of all classes of the community, as well as the future profits accruing from the general operations of the Society, to that purpose. All sums subscribed will immediately be invested, in the name of the trustees, in the Government Funds.

PROVINCIAL MEDICAL DIRECTORY.

THE EDITORS request most earnestly that Gentlemen will every year be kind enough to return the "CIRCULAR" immediately on its receipt, without reference to whether they may have any alteration to make or not; the accuracy of the DIRECTORY depending on the Annual Returns being carefully made.

An asterisk (*) is prefixed to the names of those persons practising the medical profession, who have not made any return of the nature of their qualifications, in reply to repeated applications, and whose names cannot be identified in the list of members of the University of London; of the Royal College of Physicians, London; of the Royal College of Surgeons of England; or of the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries, London.

The Editors beg to submit, that while they regret Gentlemen who may be legally qualified should experience the annoyance of being so marked, it must be owned that it arises from their omitting to return the Circular, sent expressly to obtain the information this work is intended to afford, and it is hoped every Gentleman will supply his qualifications for correct entry in next year's (1852) Directory.

UNIVERSITY TERMS AND RESIDENCE.

Full term is understood to commence on the first day of the week after the first congregation is held; so that if the congregation be held on the Monday, the Sunday after is considered the first day of full term. For the degree of M.D., the degree of Bachelor in Medicine is required, after undergoing the same two examinations that are appointed for Bachelors of Arts. No one can be examined for the degree of Bachelor of Arts before the beginning of the fourth* year from the date of his matriculation. By those who have not taken any degree in Arts, Michaelmas and Hilary terms are each kept by six weeks' residence; and Easter and Trinity Terms by three weeks'. Sixteen terms are required for the degree of B.A.; but of these, the day of matriculation, if it be in term, counts for one, the day of admission to the degree for another, and two more are dispensed with by congregation, so that, in point of fact, residence for twelve terms only is necessary. At the expiration of twenty-eight terms from matriculation, and

* The sons, and the eldest sons of the eldest sons, of English, Scotch, and Irish Peers, and Peeresses in their own right, as well as Baronets and the eldest sons of Baronets and Knights, when matriculated as such, and not on the foundation of the College, are allowed to offer themselves as candidates for the degree of B.A. after having completed three years.

twelve terms from the second examination for the degree of B.A., the candidate may become a B.M., and at the end of three years more he may obtain the degree of M.D.

EXERCISES FOR DEGREES.

1st. To PERFORM THE EXERCISE CALLED RESPONSIONS, which are fixed to take place in Michaelmas term, on 26th October; in Hilary term, on the Wednesday after Septuagesima Sunday; and in Trinity term, on the Monday after the first Sunday in that term. This exercise consists in an examination in the Greek and Latin languages, (chiefly with a view to their grammatical construction,) in the rudiments of logic, or in Euclid's Elements of Geometry.

2nd. To BE PUBLICLY EXAMINED. Public examinations are held twice a year: viz., in Michaelmas term, beginning on the second day of Nov.; and in Easter term, beginning on the Friday which follows the second Sunday after Easter. The examination comprises, 1st. The rudiments of religion; 2nd. The literæ humaniores; 3rd. The elements of the mathematical sciences, and of physics. In MEDICINE, all students (besides undergoing the two same examinations appointed for Bachelors of Arts) are to be examined by the Regius Professor of that faculty and two examiners of the degree of M.D., appointed by the Vice-Chancellor in the Theory and Practice of Medicine, Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathology; in Materia Medica, and in Chemistry and Botany, so far as they illustrate the science of Medicine; and in two at least of the following ancient medical writers—Hippocrates, Aretæus, Galen, and Celsus. For a DOCTOR'S DEGREE in Medicine a dissertation upon some subject, to be approved of by the Regius Professor of Medicine, is to be publicly recited in the Schools, and a copy of it afterwards delivered to the Professor.

Degrees are publicly conferred once a year on all those students who have finished a collegiate education. At Oxford, this ceremony is called the ACT; at Cambridge, the COMMENCEMENT. The day appointed is the 3rd of June.

REGULATIONS.

The course of Physic consists of about fifty lectures, and is delivered during Lent and Easter terms; first course, 5*l.* 5*s.*, afterwards gratis. A course of thirty lectures on Chemistry is delivered during Lent term, and one of twenty lectures on Organic Chemistry during Easter term. A course of fifty lectures on Anatomy is delivered in Michaelmas and Lent terms: each course 5*l.* 5*s.*, afterwards gratis. Pupils have the opportunity of dissecting in private. It is imperative on candidates for medical degrees to attend these lectures. There is a rich and interesting anatomical museum open to the medical students daily, from eleven to twelve, and to all Graduates and Visitors from two to three P.M., on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Lectures on Botany are delivered during Easter term.—Students in medicine must obtain certificates of the latter, if the course consist of more than twenty lectures. The Downing Professor of Medicine gives a course of Pathological Anatomy once a year during Michaelmas term, on the usual terms of public attendance.

Medical students commonly reside at Cambridge during the first three years after their admission, and are then, in common with other students, obliged to attend the private lectures, given in the different colleges, on Natural and Moral Philosophy, Mathematics, and the Classics, as well as the examinations, which take place twice a year. All candidates for degrees are compelled to pass one public examination,—the first, or preliminary examination, called the Previous Examination, analogous to the preliminary examination required at the London University. The subjects are, Evidences of Christianity, the Greek Testament, and one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics.

If the medical student desire it, he may, in due time, present himself for the Second Examination, by which he becomes B.A.; but this is optional.

PROCEEDINGS IN PHYSIC.—M.B. A student before he can become a Bachelor of Physic must have entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University, have resided nine terms, and have passed the Previous Examination.

A Bachelor of Arts may become a Bachelor of Physic, after having entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University, provided that one year at least has intervened between his final determination in Arts and his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Physic.

The exercises for this degree are one Act,* and one Opponency (academical disputation).

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Physic must, previously to the performances of these exercises, in addition to the examination by the Regius Professor of Physic, be examined by the Professors of Anatomy, Chemistry, and Botany, and the Downing Professor of Medicine. This examination may take place at any time in the fifth year after their admission, but not earlier. They must have diligently attended the lectures of the Regius Professor of Physic for two terms, and must bring to him certificates of examination by the above Professors, and of attendance on their lectures, in case the course of lectures of the Professor of Botany consist of not less than twenty lectures, and the courses of lectures of the Professors of Anatomy and Chemistry, and of the Downing Professor of Medicine, of not less than fifty lectures each. They must also deliver to the Regius Professor of Physic certificates of having been diligently employed in attendance on medical lectures and the practice of some well-known (bonæ notæ) hospital for two years, or for as long a time as they have been absent from the University during their undergraduateship.

L.M. A licence ad practicandum in Medicina may be granted to a Bachelor of Physic in the terms subsequent to that in which he has taken his degree, or to a Master of Arts of two years' standing.

Candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Bachelors of Physic, are required to produce to the Regius Professor of Physic certificates of their having attended hospital practice for three years, exclusive of the nine terms which they kept by residence for the degree of Bachelor of Physic, and of

*In the Medical Act there are two questions or subjects for discussion, (quæstiones.) The first is proposed by the respondent or candidate who keeps the Act, and submitted to the professor; the second is appointed by the professor.

Form of Notice for an Act

Q.S.—I. Ex rerum vitiis oritur diabetes.
II. Actio vomendi a musculis abdominis perficitur.
Coll.—die—Jun. A.B., respond.

The respondent begins by reading his thesis: the professor then calls up the opponent, who is a candidate for the same degree, and wears the same habit as the respondent, to bring forward the arguments which are propounded in the syllogistic form, three against the first question and two against the second. In case there should be no opponent, the arguments are propounded by the professor. After the disputation is ended, the professor reads a determination upon the second question.

Every candidate for M.B. pays the professor for his Act, 7*l.*, and for M.D. 11*l.* 11*s.* for the two Acts.

The annual public assembly for conferring degrees on all students, who may have completed their academical education at Cambridge, is called the Commencement, at Oxford, the Act. It takes place on the first Tuesday in July. The Act at Oxford and the Act at Cambridge will now be understood to refer to academical proceedings, are not identical.

their having attended lectures on the following subjects—viz.: Practice of Physic and Pathology, Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry, Botany, Medical Jurisprudence, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, Principles of Surgery, Principles of Midwifery, Practical Anatomy for two seasons.

Candidates for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Masters of Arts, are required to bring satisfactory evidence to the Regius Professor of Physic of their having been employed in the study of Physic for five years, after they became Bachelors of Arts; and to produce to him certificates of their having attended on hospital practice for three of the said five years, and of their having attended lectures on the subjects before mentioned.

Every Candidate for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina is required to pass an examination to the satisfaction of the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Anatomy, the Downing Professor of Medicine, and a Doctor of Physic to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and approved by the Senate at the first Congregation after the 10th of October in each year.

There are two such Examinations in every year; one in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Michaelmas term falls; the other in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Easter term falls.

A candidate for a licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Bachelor of Physic, cannot be examined for the said licence, until the Examination which shall occur next but one after his having passed the Examination required for the degree of Bachelor of Physic.

M.D. The degree of Doctor of Physic is granted to a Bachelor of Physic of five years', or to a Master of Arts of seven years' standing.

His petition must be presented at a meeting of the college, after the fee shall have been lodged in the treasurer's hands; and if a graduate of any university in Great Britain or Ireland, the motion for his admission may be determined by ballot at the first quarterly meeting of the college thereafter—a majority of three-fourths being necessary to carry it in the affirmative.

Graduates of foreign universities must previously submit to an examination before the examiners of the college, which shall consist—

The above examination can be dispensed with only by a unanimous vote of the college, upon a motion made by a fellow, of which due notice requires to be given.

NON-RESIDENT FELLOWS.—The mode of election of a non-resident is the same as that of a resident fellow. In his petition he engages, if he comes to reside in Edinburgh, to fulfil the whole conditions which the college does or may require of resident fellows; but another ballot must take place before he is admitted to that grade by the college.

The fees for a resident fellowship amount to 130*l.*, and for a non-resident 80*l.* both inclusive of the stamp duty to government.

LICENTIATES.—Graduates of British universities are entitled to be admitted licentiates, without any previous trial or examination; but the laws relating to the examination of candidates for the fellowship, having foreign degrees, are equally applicable to candidates for the licence having foreign degrees. It is no longer necessary to be a licentiate in order to becoming a fellow. The fee for a licence is the same as that to be paid by a non-resident fellow.

The second to include practice of medicine, surgery, and the doctrines of chemistry and physics, illustrative of animal structure and function, midwifery, and medical jurisprudence.

Every candidate not a master of arts must undergo a preliminary examination on the Latin language (the book to be used being Celsus de Medicinæ), and on the etymology of such terms in the medical sciences as are derived from the Latin and the Greek; and on the elements of mental science, (the book to be used being Abercrombie on the Intellectual Powers.)

Any candidate that so desires shall be admitted to each one, or to any two of his three professional examinations, at different terms; to the first examination at the end of his third year of medical classes; to the second at the end of his fourth year; no greater interval than two years will be allowed between the two successive professional examinations, without a full renewal of the previous one. The preliminary examination may be passed at the same term as the first professional examination.

In order to be received for examination, certificates must have been lodged with the professor of medicine fourteen days before the commencement of the examination term, showing that the candidate is of the required age, that he is of good moral character, and that he has passed through the requisite course of professional education. Along with such certificates must be lodged a schedule, filled up in his own handwriting, containing a list of them, and specifying such additional branches of education, professional and general, as he may have studied.

Regulations for granting Medical Degrees.

The Senatus Academicus, having taken into their serious consideration the mode of conferring degrees in medicine, and with the view of requiring from candidates for that honourable distinction a course of study calculated to prepare for the full and enlightened discharge of their professional duties, and of affording to the public the most ample security that no degree will be conferred until it has been ascertained, by a minute and scrupulous examination, conducted by the professors of medicine and chemistry, in conjunction with other distinguished members of the medical profession, being resident fellows of the Royal College of Physicians or Surgeons in London, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, or Dublin, that the candidates have suitably profited by attending the prescribed classes and hospitals, and are in every respect qualified to practise with advantage to the community, have adopted the following regulations:

The candidate must produce evidence of unexceptionable moral character, and before being admitted to examination must subscribe a declaration that he is twenty-one years of age.

The candidate must have had a liberal and classical education, and if he be not in the possession of the degree of A.M., must be ready to undergo an examination as to his proficiency in the Latin language.

The candidate must produce certificates that he has regularly attended lectures delivered by professors in some university, or by resident fellows of the Royal Colleges of Physicians or Surgeons of London, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, or Dublin, for at least four complete winter sessions, or three winter and three summer sessions, on the following branches:

12. An apprenticeship, or six months' attendance in the shop of an apothecary, or in the laboratory of a public hospital or dispensary.
13. Attendance at a public hospital, containing not less than eighty beds, for at least eighteen months.

These regulations will be invariably observed, except when the candidates are possessed of a surgeon's diploma or licence from the colleges of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, or a licence from the Apothecaries' Company, in which case they have merely to present such diploma, or licence, previous to their examination for M.D.

The university has fixed two periods, during the year, for the examination of candidates—the first Wednesday in May, and the third Wednesday in October.

Each candidate, after he shall have afforded sufficient evidence to the university as to his course of study, and paid the fee of graduation, (twenty-five guineas) will be admitted to examination, which must be conducted before the Senatus Academicus.

The degree will be conferred on successful candidates by the Rector, in the hall of the public library of the university, and the diplomas will be signed by the members of the university and the examiners.

Should any candidate be found unqualified, he will be remitted to his studies till the next period for conferring degrees; and when he again presents himself, he will be required to produce satisfactory evidence that he has been diligently engaged during the interval in improving himself, and, if possible, attending additional lectures.

In the event of the candidate being remitted to his studies, he shall forfeit five pounds of the graduation fee; which, however, will be accounted for to him when he passes his examination successfully at a subsequent trial.

Every candidate for the degree of M.D. is requested to communicate with the Professor of Medicine in this university, personally, or by letter, and to furnish him with a list of the certificates he intends to produce, fourteen days before the stated period of examination.

 Candidates desirous of further information may communicate personally, or by letter, with the Rev. JAMES M'BEAN, Librarian, or any of the Examiners.

The days of graduation are, Shrove Tuesday, and the first Tuesday in July. Candidates who have graduated in arts may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, at any of the ensuing half-yearly periods of graduation, provided the requisite medical education and examinations shall have been accomplished. The graduation fees for the degree of bachelor of medicine are 11*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* The standing of the first undergraduate year may be obtained by attending the October examination of that year, if the student has entered not later than the first Monday of the July of the same year, and has completed the payments due since the ordinary period of entrance in the preceding November. The medical education of a bachelor of medicine comprises attendance on the following courses of lectures in the school of physic established by Act of Parliament, provided that one, and not more than three, of the courses which begin in November, be attended during each of four sessions. Three of these courses, at the discretion of the candidate, may be attended at the University of Edinburgh. The courses are on—anatomy and surgery, chemistry, botany, materia medica and pharmacy, institutes of medicine, practice of medicine, midwifery (by the Professor of the College of Physicians), clinical lectures at Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital, during at least one session (six months), as delivered by the professors in the school of physic; the attendance on such clinical lectures by the professors to be extended to three additional months of a summer session, commencing in May. QUALIFICATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR LICENCE—Candidates must produce evidence of having been engaged in the study of medicine for four years, and of having attended two at least of the required courses in each year. Candidates, except those who have taken a medical degree prior to 1840, must produce certificates of attendance on one or more courses of lectures on the following subjects, each course being of six months' duration, with the exception of botany and forensic medicine, which must include at least fifty lectures:—Anatomy and physiology, chemistry, materia medica and pharmacy, botany, institutes of medicine, practice of medicine, principles and practice of surgery, midwifery, and forensic medicine. The lectures on anatomy, chemistry, botany, materia medica, institutes of medicine, and practice of medicine, are required to have been delivered by the respective professors of the school of physic in Dublin, or in a university. The lectures on surgery are required to have been delivered on at least three days in the week, during four months, by a professor of surgery in a university or college of physicians or surgeons in the United Kingdom, or by the surgeon of a medico-chirurgical hospital recognised by the college. These lectures must not form part of a course of lectures on anatomy. The lectures on midwifery are required to have been delivered by a professor of midwifery in a university or college of physicians or surgeons in the United Kingdom, or by the Master of the Lying-in Hospital, Dublin. The lectures on medical jurisprudence are required to have been delivered by a professor in a university or college of physicians or surgeons in the United Kingdom. Certificates must also be produced of six months' attendance on anatomical demonstrations and dissections, and of at least two years' hospital practice; one year in the hospital of the school of physic in Dublin or Edinburgh, the other in any recognised medico-chirurgical hospital. The certificates must include attendance on the entire practice of an hospital, and on all the clinical lectures delivered in the hospital during such attendance. Candidates who have taken a medical degree in a university shall be admitted to examination upon such a degree alone. Every candidate for license, except those who have taken a medical degree prior to 1840, is examined on two separate days; on the first day on anatomy and physiology, chemistry, botany, materia medica, and pharmacy; and on the second day, on acute and chronic diseases, midwifery, and non-naturals, and on the translating of one or more of the following books from the original Greek—viz.; Hippocrates, Aretæus, and Galen. Graduates in medicine are only required to undergo the second day's examination. The examinations, which are public, are conducted in the English language; but every candidate, except graduates in arts at Oxford, Cambridge, or Dublin, is required to translate medical cases from the English into the Latin language, before he is admitted to examination as to his professional acquirements. Fee for license, 30*l.*

The license of the college is equivalent to a medical degree, and it confers privileges which a degree does not.

The fellows are chosen from the licentiates of three years' standing; they are required by statute (40 Geo. III., cap. 84, sect. 42) to have taken the degree of M.D. in one of the universities of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge; or to have taken the degree of A.B. in one of these universities, and to have received the medical education requisite for obtaining the licence, for which a degree in medicine is not necessary. Fee to the college on election to the fellowship, 20*l.*, with an additional stamp duty of 25*l.*

The Act of Parliament provides that these qualifications may be dispensed with whenever, at any time, the number of fellows is reduced to six.

The college has the power of conferring the honorary fellowship on any of its own licentiates who have not the statutable qualifications; on such of its fellows as resign or vacate the fellowship; and on such eminent medical men, not licentiates, as it may wish to distinguish by its approbation.

Gentlemen presenting letters testimonial from any of the royal colleges of surgeons in Great Britain or Ireland, will be admitted to examination for the licence of the Hall, on producing proof of three years' legal apprenticeship to a qualified apothecary in Ireland, and of a preliminary and professional education equal to the curriculum prescribed by the council.

The examination for the licence to act as assistant to an apothecary in compounding and dispensing medicine will be confined to practical pharmacy.

The candidate for the assistant's licence may present himself for examination at the termination of three years' apprenticeship.

The court of examiners sits every Friday, at two o'clock, and proceeds with the examination of candidates in the order in which their names appear on the list.

A rejected candidate cannot be re-admitted to examination until the expiration of six months.

According to the Act of Parliament, no person can be taken or employed as an apprentice, assistant, or shopman, to any apothecary, and no person can open shop, or act in the art and mystery of an apothecary within the kingdom of Ireland, until such person shall have been examined and obtained the certificate of the court of examiners of the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin..... It is also provided, that if any one shall take or employ any person as an apprentice, assistant, or shopman, or shall open shop or wareroom for the retail of medicine, or practise the art and mystery of an apothecary within the kingdom of Ireland, without such person having obtained the proper certificate for the purpose, such person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of twenty pounds, to be recovered by the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin..... 31st George III., chap. 34, sect. 18, 22, and 26.

The council require that every indenture of apprenticeship be enrolled at the Hall within six months from the date of its execution, and that the date of the diploma of the master, to whom the apprentice is about being bound, be furnished at the same time, and that this rule be adhered to on every transfer of such indenture, on pain of the forfeiture of the time served.

FEES CLAIMABLE BY MEDICAL WITNESSES.

AT a coroner's inquest for attending and giving medical evidence, in obedience to the order framed according to schedule A of the 6 and 7 William IV. cap. 89, commonly called "The Medical Witness Act" £1 1 0

If the witness has also, by direction of the coroner, according to the like form, made a post-mortem examination of the body of the person deceased, then, on attending the inquest, and giving evidence thereon, the witness is entitled to receive a fee of : £2 2 0

The order to make a "post-mortem examination" comprehends a chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach, if such be necessary, as well as an analysis of any other fluid or substance placed in the hands of the witness by direction of the coroner, under suspicion that it was concerned in the demise of the person deceased, the chemical analysis is a part of the autopsy, and no separate or additional fee is recoverable for such analysis. A medical witness to whose skill a post-mortem examination is confided, is presumed to be competent to make every portion of a pathological or anatomical inspection; or, if he derive aid in his investigation from a professed chemist, or other such specially accomplished person, he must himself prove at the inquest all the appearances detected at the autopsy.

For attending to give medical evidence at trials in the criminal courts and in suits at law . . . . . £1 1 0 to 2 2 0

Medical witnesses who, at inquests, are bound over by the coroner to appear at the sessions or assizes to give evidence at a trial for manslaughter or murder, are paid for attending at the trial, in addition to the payment at the inquest, a sum per day not fixed by law, but varying according to the practice of the county. The sum is probably nowhere less than a guinea per day. When a medical witness is examined at a police court, or before a bench of magistrates, he obtains no fee for his evidence there, and is remunerated only at the criminal court where the trial of the prisoner takes place. This is unjust in principle, as it opens a temptation to strain evidence against the accused at the preliminary inquiry. The medical witness on such occasions should obtain from the committing magistrate or justices a certificate of his claim to be paid at the trial, and present it at the office of the clerk of the arraigns, or other place where the fees of witnesses for attending the criminal court are paid.

A surgeon, called by a police officer to treat an accident, or a person in a state of insensibility, has a legal claim upon the patient, or his or her friends. If, however, he be summoned by the police to attend a sick person at the station house, he is allowed 3*s.* 6*d.* for a visit in the day-time, and 7*s.* if after nine o'clock at night. These fees are paid by the police authorities.

The statute is so very precise in relation to the attendance and claims of medical gentlemen at coroner's inquests, and it is so necessary that it should be clearly comprehended, in order to save them needless trouble, that we subjoin the following exposition of the law:—

First and chiefly it should be understood that to entitle a medical witness to receive a fee in the coroner's court, he must have received an order to attend the court, or to open the dead body, signed by the coroner, framed in the following terms:—

"Coroner's inquest at the . . . . . in the parish of . . . . . in the county of . . . . . upon the body of . . . . . .

"By virtue of this my order, as coroner for . . . . . you are required to appear before me and the jury at the place aforesaid, on the . . . . . day of . . . . . one thousand eight hundred and . . . . . at . . . . . o'clock on the . . . . . noon, to give evidence touching the cause of the death of the aforesaid person; and make, or assist in making, a post-mortem examination of the body, (with an analysis of the contents of the stomach, if such be necessary,) and report thereon at the said inquest.

"To Mr. . . . . ." "A. B. coroner.

When any legally qualified medical practitioner has attended upon any inquest in obedience to any such order, as aforesaid, of the coroner, the said practitioner shall, for such attendance at any inquest in Great Britain, be entitled to receive such remuneration or fee as is mentioned in the table marked B in the "Table of Fees."—Section III. of the Act.

At the same time that it provides for the payment of medical witnesses, who previously had no security for payment, the Act throughout indicates that the summoning of witnesses to make post-mortem examinations, and give medical testimony, shall rest with the coroner himself, expressed by the "order" above printed, and not be subject to the whim or discretion of any officer of police, constable, beadle, or headborough; and without the possession of the "order" in question, a medical witness cannot legally claim the payment of the fee. The statute, however, does not exonerate medical gentlemen from the duty of obeying a common summons signed by the constable, under the warrant to assemble the inquest, since it may happen that professional men may be the proper persons to testify to facts that do not possess a medical character, and they are in law as fully bound to obey that summons as the express medical order of the coroner.

1850: Jan. 2.—SIR DAVID JAMES HAMILTON DICKSON, Knt. & K.St. Wladimer, at Stonehouse, in his 70th year. F.R.S. Edin., F.L.S., late Inspector of Hospitals and Fleets. He was the youngest son of the late Rev. George Dickson, minister of Bedrule, in Roxburghshire. He served as Surgeon in the expeditions to Holland in 1799, and to Egypt in 1801; as Physician Inspector at the capture of the French and Dutch Islands in the West Indies; and in the expedition on the Chesapeake to New Orleans, &c. He was appointed Acting Physician and Inspector of H.M. ships and hospitals at the Leeward Islands in 1806, and confirmed in that office in 1808; Superintendent of Russian Imperial Fleet in the Medway in 1813, and received the Order of St. Wladimir from the Emperor Alexander; Physician to the Mediterranean Fleet, but changed to the Halifax Station, March 1814; Physician to the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth in 1824; and Inspector of Hospitals and Fleets, Aug. 1840. He received the honour of Knighthood from King William IV. in 1834.

Jan. 10.—WILLIAM REID CLANNY, M.D., F.R.S. Edin., aged 73, at his residence at Sunderland, in the county of Durham. He was a member of the Royal Irish Academy, a Knight Commander of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Physician Extraordinary to his Royal Highness the late Duke of Sussex, and Consulting Physician to the Sunderland Infirmary. Dr. Clanny was a native of the parish of Bangor, Co. Down, Ireland. Born of respectable parents, and one of a large family, his education was completed at the Medical School in Edinburgh. He served as Assistant Surgeon for some time in the Royal Navy, in the Baltic and North Sea, and was present in the action at Copenhagen. He subsequently graduated at Edinburgh, and married there, Margaret, daughter of Captain Mitchell, of the Hon. East India Company's Service. He then resided and practised for a short time in the City of Durham, and afterwards at Bishopwearmouth in the borough of Sunderland, where he practised as a physician for the long period of 45 years. He was the Inventor of the first safety lamp.

March 9.—JOHN MALYN, Esq., F.R.C.S., many years Surgeon to the Western Dispensary, and Lecturer on Anatomy and Physiology at the Westminster Hospital School of Medicine, aged 48, at Kentish Town. Mr. Malyn was born at Manchester, commenced his professional education at the Infirmary of that town, where he became distinguished alike for his talent and assiduity. After the death of Mr. Joshua Brookes, he joined his friend Mr. Thomas King in opening the Blenheim-street school, and subsequently joined that attached to the Westminster Hospital. As a lecturer, Mr. Malyn was eminently popular and successful. He was a contributor of various Articles to the Cyclopædia of Medicine and Surgery.

April 9.—DR. PROUT, F.R.S., in the 64th year of his age. This distinguished Physician and Pathological Chemist, died at his house in Sackville-street. Dr. Prout's researches in Organic Chemistry gained for him, at an early period, high reputation ; they were carried on at a time when but little attention had been given to this important branch of science, and when even an apparatus for obtaining accurate results was a great desideratum among chemists. Although these researches have been in a great part eclipsed by the more showy and brilliant results of the German School of Chemists, there can be no doubt that practical medicine has been greatly benefited by them. The researches of Dr. Prout on the Pathological Condition of the Urine, and on Renal Diseases, deservedly gained for him an European reputation, and his great work on this subject has become a standard authority to practitioners. The deceased was a Graduate of the University of Edinburgh, a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and a Fellow of the Royal Society.

June 9.—JOHN GREEN CROSSE, Esq., M.D., F.R.C.S., at Norwich, Senior Surg. to the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital. The lamented deceased had obtained a well-earned reputation, not only in the provinces but in London, by his numerous and valuable contributions to the advancement of science, published principally in the Transactions of the Provincial Association, of which institution he had been a president, and was, at the time of his decease, a vice-president; but his opus magnum was the "Essay on Urinary Diseases," for which he obtained from the Royal College of Surgeons their Jacksonian Prize in 1833. Mr. Crosse was a member of several distinguished societies, both at home and abroad.

Sept. —.—DR. WILLIAMSON, of Aberdeen, in his 62nd year. The deceased was born on the 25th January, 1789. In 1804 he became an articled pupil of the late Dr. French, then one of the medical attendants in the Aberdeen Infirmary, and Professor of Chemistry in the University. In the autumn of 1808 he proceeded to London, where he attended the surgical practice at Guy's and St. Thomas's Hospitals. Subsequently to this he became assistant to a Surgeon in Cheltenham, returning to London in 1811 to enter the different classes then taught by Mr. Cline, Mr., afterwards Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin, then Mr. Brodie, and Mr. Haighton. Early in 1812 he presented himself for the usual examination at the Roy. Coll. Surgeons, with the view of entering the Naval Service as Assistant-Surgeon. Ultimately, however, he determined on returning to his native place, which he did about the close of 1812, after spending a few months at the Medical School in Edinburgh. Dr. Williamson's career was most active and laborious, till about two years ago, when, his health giving way, he almost wholly retired into private life. By his medical brethren Dr. W. had been placed for several years before his death at the head of the profession in that part of Scotland; a position considered by them as due to him both from his sterling uprightness of conduct, and his high medical acquirements.

Oct. 14.—DR. FOUQUIER, of Paris, aged 74; Prof. of Clinical Medicine to the Faculty. Dr. Fouquier had been the favourite physician of Louis Phillippe for a considerable period, and commanded a very large practice. It is generally allowed that he fully deserved the distinguished rank he held in the profession, and he was particularly beloved by his patients. He has not left any medical works of note; a few therapeutical essays, and a translation of Brown's book, as well as a share in one of Celsus's, comprise the whole of his literary remains.

Oct. 21.—THOS. HUME, Esq., M.D., Oxon, aged 81; beloved whilst living, and regretted by all, particularly the poor, as his numerous and long continued charities entitle him. Dr. Hume was physician to his Grace the Duke of Wellington when with the army in Portugal, also physician for many years to his late Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge. He is buried in the family vault of his widow, herself the last descendant of the great and celebrated mathematician, Dr. John Wallis, LL.D., the contemporary and friend of Newton, Locke, &c.

Nov. 28th.—SIR WILLIAM WHYMPER, M.D., at Dover, aged 65. Sir W. Whymper was present at the battles of Oporto, Talavera, (where he was taken prisoner,) Busaco, Vittoria, the passage of the Bidassoa, the siege of St. Sebastian, battle of the Nive, and at Waterloo. He had received the war-medal with five clasps. In 1825, he was Surgeon-major of the Coldstream Guards, and, in 1836, retired on half-pay. He was knighted in 1832.

BONUS, OR PROFIT BRANCH.

Persons assuring on the Bonus System, will be annually entitled to 80 per cent. of the profits on this branch (after payment of five yearly Premiums;) and the Profit assigned to each Policy may be added to the sum assured, or applied in reduction of the Annual Premium.

NON-BONUS, OR LOW PREMIUM BRANCH.

The Directors of the British Mutual Life Assurance Society, in order to encourage parties desirous of making small investments, or obtaining loans from £25 to £250, beg to invite attention to the

which have been established upon the following principles:—

Each Class consists of Twenty-five Members, who each subscribes £1 per month for fifty months for every £50 of the Capital Fund or Stock of the Class to which he belongs. Each Member to subscribe not less than 10*s.* (for £25) nor more than £5 (for £250) per month.

The funds so raised are advanced each month by way of anticipation to that Member who may be willing to give the greatest Bonus for the priority of the advance—i.e. for receiving at once, instead of waiting till he has completed his subscriptions, the ultimate amount of the sum he may subscribe for, such bonus to be paid in equal monthly proportions extending over the remaining period of duration of his Class.

The Member so entitling himself to the priority, will simply have to give a promissory note, joined by two approved sureties, or, if more convenient to himself, such other security as shall be approved by the Trustees of his class for the due payment of his future subscription and bonus.

Several Classes have been already established, and others are now in course of formation, and will shortly commence operation. Persons desirous of joining, or of obtaining any further information, may apply at the Offices of the British Mutual Life Assurance Society, 17, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

LIFE.

The attention of the public is particularly directed to the plan of the Mutual Branch of this Institution, in which complete security is combined with the highest attainable economy. The holders of Policies are fully protected from all LOSS and LIABILITY by the ample Subscribed Capital of One Million Sterling, in addition to the large fund accumulated from the Premiums on 3000 Policies.

The decided success of this Branch of the Establishment is evidenced by the result of the Septennial Division of Profits in the year 1848, when a Bonus of 56 per cent upon the Premiums paid was allotted to the Policy holders; the Bonus being appropriated, at the option of the Assured, either by an Addition to the Sum Assured, or an equivalent Reduction in the Future Annual Payments.

In the Proprietary Branch, Assurances are granted at the Lowest possible Rates of Premium consistent with the security of the Establishment. Such Assurances may be effected in a great variety of ways, to suit the circumstances and convenience of the Assured. Among others, the annexed specimen of the rates required for £100, payable on the assured attaining SIXTY years of age, or at Death if that event should happen previously, is particularly deserving of attention.

GREEN'S SULPHUR, FUMIGATING, MEDICAL, and VAPOUR BATHS, 49, Great Marlborough-street.—For more than Twenty-seven years Dr. GREEN'S attention has been directed to the remedial agency of Baths of different kinds upon the Human Body, and for the same length of time he has superintended an establishment for their due and proper administration.

Judiciously employed Fume and Vapour Baths are beyond all question invaluable, as principal or auxiliary means in the treatment of many kinds of Chronic Disease, particularly Rheumatism and Rheumatic Gout, Affections of the Skin, and impaired Functions of the great Abdominal Viscera.

These Baths are accessible at all hours of the day to the Public at large, and to the members of the Medical Profession, with their Patients, in cases where it is desirable that the medical attendants should witness and direct the administration of the Baths.

On the 5th April in every year, the precise state of the affairs is ascertained by a detailed valuation of the Assets and Liabilities. The divisible Surplus is then apportioned to all Policy-holders of Five Years' standing, and the share of each is handed to him in cash, when he pays his next Premium.

These payments from the Surplus amounted for the years 1845, 1846, and 1847, to 30 per cent. of the Premiums, and in 1848, 1849, and 1850, to 35 per cent. of the Premiums,—that is to say, a Policy-holder paying a Premium of £100, received back from the Office £35; and another, paying Premium of £50, received from the Office £17 10s. in each of these years. The effect of this has been to reduce Premiums of £100 to £65, and those of £50 to £32 10s. and all the others in the same proportion.

The LIFE ASSOCIATION OF SCOTLAND is the only Scottish Office which has adopted this system.

THOS. FRASER, Resident Secretary.

BULLOCK'S SEMOLA.

A highly nutritious and very agreeable Food for Infants, Ladies who are suckling, and Invalids suffering from any form of debility.

THIS Preparation recommends itself to the Profession by its uniform and known composition, and its accordance with established physiological principles. It consists of the staminal principle of wheat—the gluten—denuded of starch, as far as possible, to leave an agreeable food, adapted to cooking.

Many leading Physicians and Accoucheurs now recommend it, and their report is uniformly most satisfactory.

For Weakly Children, Mothers who are nursing, and Invalids generally, it is invaluable. Many infants have been fed on it exclusively for some months, and with the best results.

BULLOCK'S SEMOLA is a most agreeable substitute for gruels; it may be cooked in a variety of ways, for which directions are given.

In Packets, 1s., 2s. 6d., and 7s. 6d.

BULLOCK, Operative Chemist, 22, Conduit-street; and may be ordered of all Chemists and Druggists, and in the usual way through the wholesale houses.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

ACTUARY—Peter Hardy, Esq., F.R.S.

The Corporation has effected Life Assurances for a period of more than 125 years, its first policy having been issued on the 7th of June, 1721.

The extent of its business and connexions, the security afforded by its large capital, its long standing, its advantages to Assurers, and the liberality of its transactions, strongly recommend it to the public.

Two-thirds of the gross profits are awarded to the assured, and the expenses of managing the Life Department are not, as is usual, taken from the premium fund, but are defrayed by the Corporation out of their one-third share of the profits, thus giving to the Assured all the advantages of Mutual Assurance, without liability of partnership, and the security of an ancient and opulent Corporation.

Its tables have been formed on the lowest scale, to meet the varied views of Assurers, by affording to them the option of the following several advantages:—Firstly, of participating in the profits of the Corporation by abatements from annual premiums; or, secondly, by making additions to the sums assured by way of bonus payable at death; or, thirdly, by a money payment at the division of profits in every fifth year; whilst from those who desire to limit their assurances to a given sum without a participation in profits, the lowest possible rate of premium is required, as will be evinced by tables expressly prepared for the Corporation, which may be had on application at their offices, and which have been constructed for meeting the various wants of Assurers, and every risk to which protection by assurance can be extended.

The bonuses made to Assurers have at some of the periods of division been upwards of 50 per cent., and for three of the lowest years the average bonus has been equal to from 24½ to 28 per cent., or from 3 to 3½ per cent. per annum on the sum assured, varying according to the age of the life.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES.

All persons Assuring in this Office may effect policies for any amount exceeding £20, free of stamp duty, either by quarterly, half-yearly, or annual payments, with participation in all the profits. The payment of the premiums may be suspended for a period of twelve months; the full value received by the assurer for any policy in existence, if inconvenient to continue the payments; and every policy paid without delay or dispute, upon the usual proof of the death of the assured—thus affording an easy, profitable, and secure medium of making provision for a surviving widow or family.

Endowments for any amount may be secured upon the lives of children attaining the age of 14, 17, or 21 years, either by paying a specific sum at once, or by periodical payments, affording parents facilities for making the necessary provision for the various members of their families at a future period of their lives. This principle can also be extended to adults.

Policies issued by the Society render to employers security for honesty far superior to that given by private bondsmen, while, by a plan peculiar to this Society, the combination therewith of a life insurance contracts also to the family of the employed (whose integrity remains unimpeached) the amount of the sum assured, should death occur during the existence of the contract.

Advances made on Life Policies effected in this Office, and the full value given for the surrender of same at any period of their existence. No charge for policy stamps or assignments. The fee of the medical adviser to the life proposed for assurance paid by the Society, whether the case be accepted or not, and all communications regarded as strictly confidential.

Annuities granted to commence at any period of life, either by payment of a specific amount, or periodical sums, free of any expense to the annuitant, and (if so agreed upon) all payments returned (less 10 per cent.) if the party dies before the annuity is payable.

Death having removed many borrowers from Building Societies, whose families have been unable to continue their subscriptions to these Societies, their property has been confiscated for the payment of oppressive fines. With a view of preventing similar calamities, the Society will issue short policies for the remaining unexpired term of the various societies, so as to enable the surviving representatives of any deceased member to redeem the mortgage, and secure the property, free of expense or encumbrance.

The General Board meets every Tuesday at half-past two o'clock; but Assurances can be effected daily from ten to four o'clock, on application to the Secretary or to any of the Provincial Agencies.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal for Life, Guarantee, and Loan, with every other information, may be obtained of the Secretary at the Society's Office, to whom, likewise, persons desirous of being appointed Agents in London or provincial towns, or Medical Referees in the country, are requested to apply either personally or by letter.

(By order of the Board),

H. C. EIFFE, Secretary.

 A liberal Commission allowed to Solicitors, Surveyors, Ministers of Congregations, and the Company's Agents.

☞ The sum paid within the current year by this office for Medical Fees, amounts nearly to £500!!!

 A just ground for complaint on the part of the Medical Profession in reference to the non-payment of a fee to the private medical attendant of the life proposed for Assurance having existed, the Directors of this Institution have determined that in all cases the usual fee to the professional gentleman referred to, shall be paid without hesitation.

At the last Annual Meeting, held on the 28th of November, 1850, it appeared from the report of the Directors, that during the preceding year there had been issued no less than 569 Policies, covering assurances to the amount of £213,469, and yielding Annual Premiums amounting to £9,163.

The following abstract shows the number and amount of Policies effected in each year, ending September 30, since the commencement of the Society.

At the Annual Meeting, held on the 30th November, 1848, the First Division of Profits was declared, by which a BONUS of nearly Two per Cent. per Annum was added to those Policies participating in the Profits of the Society.

This rate or Bonus shows the advantage of effecting Policies in a Company constituted like the present, for about one-third only of the existing Policies in this Company are effected on the Participating Scale; and, from the fact of the Office assuring diseased lives, there is reason to believe this ratio will continue a distinctive feature of its business.

Two-thirds of the whole profits of this Company are divisible among the Participating Policies only, and hence the advantage to be gained by those effecting Profit-Policies must be obvious.

Prospectuses, containing very full tables of rates, forms of proposal, and every other information, will be forwarded, postage free, on application to any of the Society's Agents, or to the Secretary, at the chief office, 25, Pall Mall.

The Shareholders of the Company being entitled to no portion whatever of the profits of this Branch, the Policy-holders enjoy precisely the same advantage as in a Mutual Assurance Society, with the additional security of a capital of 250,000*l.* the whole of which has been subscribed for by a responsible and influential proprietary.

In the PROPRIETARY Branch, the rates of premium are reduced to the lowest possible scale consistent with the security of the establishment. They are also made payable in a variety of ways, in order to suit the circumstances and convenience of the different classes of Policy-holders.

In both branches, effectual arrangements have been adopted for the protection and accommodation of all classes of the Assured.

The Rates of Premiums are constructed upon Sound Principles with reference to every Colony, and, by payment of a moderate addition to the Home Premium, in case of increase of risk, persons assured in this office may change from one climate to another, without forfeiting their Policies.

JAMES'S POWDER.

PHYSICIANS, and other Medical Practitioners having complained of the frequent use of antimonial powder, instead of the "Genuine James's Powder" prescribed, have represented to Messrs. NEWBERY, that the price of the Powder has greatly led to this fraudulent practice, and has also greatly prevented the more general use of the Powder. Messrs. Newbery have, therefore, yielded to the suggestions of the Profession, and have reduced the price; and to secure the use of the genuine medicine recommend that the same should be prescribed as prepared by Messrs. NEWBERY, thus:—"Pulv. Jacobi Veri" (Newbery's.)

The price for dispensing will henceforth be reduced from 21*s.* to 9*s.* an ounce.

The genuine has the name "F. Newbery, 45, St. Paul's," engraved on the Government Stamp.

Four-Fifths, or 80 per cent. of the profits, to be divided amongst the Assured on the participating scale; the remaining One-Fifth, or 20 per cent. to be invested for the purpose of redeeming the subscribed capital; thenceforward the whole of the profits to be divided amongst them.

Thus the plan of the New Equitable Company embraces all the advantages of a strictly Mutual Office, and, in addition, affords the assured the bonâ fide security of an ample subscribed capital.

Half the premiums, for the first five years, may remain unpaid. Should an Assurer be unable to continue the payment of his premiums, an arrangement may be made to secure a Policy free from any future payments.

Policies will not be void by an Assurer being unable to pay the amount of his Premium, as, after the payment of three full annual premiums, he will be allowed to charge the amount thereof on his Policy, and thus prevent a valuable Policy from being forfeited.

The Rates are calculated from the combined experience of seventeen of the oldest and most successful offices.

Separate Tables, at a lower rate of Premium than the scale charged by a large proportion of the Offices, for those who do not desire to participate in the Profits of the Company.

Deposit Assurance, allowing the Assurer to increase his Assurance, or to withdraw any portion or the whole of the Deposit at any period—the value of the Policy fluctuating accordingly.

The business of this Company embraces every description of risk contingent upon human life, and the rates of premium are lower than those of the great majority of established Offices.

The assured in the PARTICIPATION CLASS derive every advantage of the purely mutual system, combined with complete security. The sums assured are guaranteed by the proprietors of the Company, in addition to the security of a large paid-up capital and accumulated fund, while the members have the WHOLE BENEFIT of their contributions, the business being conducted for a charge of 10 per cent. on the premiums, without any other deduction whatever; in other words, the PROFIT WITHOUT the LIABILITY of the Mutual Assurance System.

The Assured have the power, under the Act of Incorporation, to elect three of their number as Directors, for the MANAGEMENT and INVESTMENT of their own funds.

At the Division of Profits, made as at 30th April, 1846, the Bonus additions averaged from 35 to 55 per cent. on the premiums received.

The next Division takes place on 30th April, 1851, and Policies effected before that date will then share in the Profits of the previous Five Years.

The number of Policies already issued by this Institution is upwards of THREE THOUSAND, covering Assurances to the extent of ONE MILLION AND A HALF sterling.

DECLARATION OF BONUS.

The valuation of the Assets and Liabilities of the Society has been made to the 31st December, 1848, and the results submitted to Professor De Morgan, F.R.A.S., Peter Hardy, Esq., F.R.S., and Jenkin Jones, Esq., F.I.A., who certify that the Society's business has been of a most satisfactory character; and that the very liberal Bonus, averaging upwards of 60 per cent. on the Premiums paid (about 2 per cent. per annum on the sum assured,) is perfectly safe to the permanent interests of the Society.

The Class of persons who have availed themselves of the advantages of this Society, (being principally members of religious Communities, and consequently of moral and careful habits,) has given to the experience of the STAR a marked superiority, as will be manifest from an inspection of the following specimen of Bonus declared at the first Quinquennial meeting, held March, 1849.

The next valuation for the purpose of apportioning profits will be made on the thirty-first day of December, 1853.

 On the 26th June, 1850, the FIFTH QUINQUENNIAL division of PROFIT was declared. The Addition made for the last Five Years was 7½ per cent. on the amount of the Policy, making, with former Additions, 47½ per cent. on all Policies effected before June 1, 1826.

The present Reversionary Bonus amounts to £105,000, making, with former Reversionary Bonuses, a total of £450,000 granted out of the Profits of the Society, which Profits, on the four former Quinquennial Divisions, amounted together to £190,000, and on the present occasion to £67,000.

ASSURANCES may be effected on the lives of all persons whose names are or have been, during any period, however short, on the Books or Boards of any College or Hall, at OXFORD or CAMBRIDGE.

Assurances may be effected on the lives of such persons against the lives of any persons whatsoever.

NINE-TENTHS OF THE PROFITS ARE APPROPRIATED TO THE ASSURED, either by a proportionate diminution of Premium, by an increase in the amount of the Policy, or by a present payment of the value in money, at the option of the party. It will thus be observed that this Society is based on a better principle than that of Mutual Assurance, as there is a guaranteed capital for the Assured without any liability on their part, besides a division of NEARLY ALL THE PROFITS.

A division of PROFITS is made every five years.

The Society will be always ready to purchase from the party in possession any unexpired Policy, or the Additions thereon.

The Society will also advance on Loan, at Interest, to the extent of nine-tenths of the actual present value of Policies effected in their own Office, and on that of such other Policies as they may deem it expedient to accept as security.

It may be worthy of remark, that from the institution of this Society to the present time, a period of more than a quarter of a century, no Claim has been disputed.

AMOUNT ACCUMULATED FROM PREMIUMS . .	£570,000
ANNUAL INCOME	70,000
OUTSTANDING POLICIES	1,500,000

The ADDITIONS to POLICIES, made by the UNIVERSITY LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY in 1830, 1835, 1840, 1845, and 1850, amount, on a policy for £1000, as follows :

If it has been effected

25 years,	to the sum of	£475	15 years	to the sum of	£275
24	„	455	14	„	255
23	„	435	13	„	235
22	„	415	12	„	215
21	„	395	11	„	195
20	„	375	10	„	175

18	„	335	8	„	135
17	„	315	7	„	115
16	„	295	6	„	95

The present value of the above sums payable in money, amounts on an average to more than 30 per cent. of the Premiums paid for the respective periods.

In the event of death before the next Division of Profits in 1855, one and a quarter per cent. per annum on the Amount of the Policy is added for every year (exceeding five years from its date) that it has existed since the last Division.

 PERSONAL APPEARANCE AT THE OFFICE IS NOT REQUIRED, EXCEPT IN PARTICULAR CASES.

Persons assured in this Office for the whole period of life may go by sea, during peace, without obtaining a Licence or paying an extra Premium, from any part of Europe, to any other part of Europe.

Rather more than five-sixths of the Assured in this Office are Clergymen.

Proposals for Assurances to be addressed to the SECRETARY, or to John Wray, Esq, Chairman of the Committee, 24, Suffolk-street, Pall Mall East, London; or to the Corresponding Directors, Manuel John Johnson, Esq., M.A., Radcliffe Observatory, Oxford, or H. Gunning, Esq., M.A., Cambridge, from whom Forms of Proposal may be obtained.

A FEE OF ONE GUINEA TO THE MEDICAL REFEREE IS IN EACH CASE PAID BY THE SOCIETY.

This COMPANY, established by Act of Parliament in 1834, affords the most perfect security in a large paid-up Capital, and in the great success which has attended it since its commencement, its Annual Income being upwards of £99,000.

SECOND SEPTENNIAL DIVISION OF PROFITS AMONG THE ASSURED.

In 1841, the Company declared a Bonus of £2 per Cent. per Annum on the Sum Insured to all Policies of the Participating Class from the time they were effected to the 31*st December*, 1840, and from that date to 31*st December*, 1847, £2½ per Cent. per Annum was added at the General Meeting on 6*th July*, 1848.

The Bonus added to Policies from March 1834, to the 31st December, 1848, is as follows:—

Sum Assured.	Time Assured.	Sum added to Policy in 1841.	Sum added to Policy in 1848.	Sum payable at Death.
£5000	13 Yrs. 10 Mths.	£683 6s. 8d.	£787 10s. 0d.	£6470 16s. 8d.

5000	4 Years	... ...	450 0 0	5450 0 0
5000	2 Years	... ...	225 0 0	5225 0 0

The Premiums, nevertheless, are on the most moderate scale, and only One-half need be paid for the first Five Years, when the Insurance is for Life.

Every information will be afforded on application to the Resident Director, at the Office, No. 8, Waterloo Place, London.

Treasurer to the Building Fund—Robert Gosling, Esq., 19, Fleet-street.

The objects of the Society are—

1st. To create a higher tone in the public mind towards the Medical Profession, without compromising its honour, standing, or liberal character, and to secure the more regular payment for professional services from that large class of society who possess the means, but not the disposition, to remunerate Medical men.

The moral power of such a Society, with the combined, systematic, and persevering efforts of respectable Agents, will make its influence universal, and secure to the Profession a just reward for much unrequited toil, and for real benefits conferred on suffering humanity. The want of such an Institution as the one now established tends to degrade the Profession, and to keep numbers in poverty who actually earn sufficient, not only for a respectable subsistence during life, but also for a provision against the destitution and suffering which are too often the lot of those they leave behind.

2nd. To establish a fund to be devoted to the erection and support of a College for the education of the sons and daughters, orphans or otherwise, of Medical Men, and also for the reception of distressed members of the Medical Profession or their widows.

The second, the benevolent object of this Society, will be attained by appropriating voluntary subscriptions from Members, donations of their more affluent brethren, the aid of the wealthy and benevolent of all classes of the community, as well as the future profits accruing from the general operations of the Society, to that purpose. All sums subscribed will immediately be invested, in the names of the Trustees, in the Government Funds.

Particulars to be obtained from the Secretary. No unqualified person can be admitted a Member.

Annual Subscription One Guinea—which constitutes a Member, and entitles to the benefits of the Society and Benevolent Fund.

The present important and comprehensive plan of practical benevolence having originated with the General Practitioners, it is hoped, nay, confidently anticipated, that the Committee will shortly be enabled to announce such a list of Contributors as will convince the public generally of their devotion to a good cause, and heartfelt sympathy with their less fortunate brethren.

The Plans and Estimate of the intended College will soon be published.

THE INSTITUTE;

A Journal of Medical, Surgical and Obstetrical Science, and Practice, and Philosophical Gazette.

THE INSTITUTE is established by a Proprietary, for the purpose of promoting the Science and Practice of Medicine on the principle of the Scientific, Educational, and Practical UNITY of all its branches. Its objects are:—

To supply to every individual engaged in practice, on the principle that Medicine and Surgery are indivisible, all the discoveries and improvements in science and practice as they are day by day developed, either at home or abroad.

To furnish the profession with the pages of a journal at their command, for the purpose of recording and discussing facts and principles the result of observation and experience, and for that interchange of opinion which has been found so conducive to the advancement of Medical as of all other learning.

To provide that numerous and highly important section of the profession who practise Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery as one science, as also those individuals who, although practising particular branches, still admit the unity of medical science, with a journal which may be depended upon for a truthful reprint or a faithful account of all proceedings in parliament or elsewhere, and of all documents, whencesoever they may issue, affecting the interests of Medicine; and to furnish a clear, deliberate, and impartial statement and commentary on every step that may be taken, or measure that may be proposed, for a change in the Medical Institutions or the Medical Polity of the United Kingdom.

To advocate, and to aid by every legitimate means in enforcing, a REFORM OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—Educational Reform—Ethical Reform—Reform in the mode of conducting Practice—Remunerative Reform—Protective Reform—Legislative Reform.

To secure the full representation in the legislature of those medical professional questions which affect the public welfare.

To promote those great PUBLIC INTERESTS connected with Medical Science and Practice, which are dependent upon the individual and general competency and complete efficiency of the members of the Medical profession.

1. To promote the exposure and discouragement, by all practicable means, of illegal, unqualified, and empirical practice, and the employment of every effort to obtain an efficient penal enactment against unqualified and illegal practitioners.

2. To urge the necessity of a high standard of education and qualification, with sufficient tests, and complete public examinations of every individual to be authorized by law to practise Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery.

3. To establish a just reciprocity of practice, based upon a uniformly high standard of qualification, for all the members of the profession of the United Kingdom.

4. The policy and absolute necessity of granting to the General Practitioners of this country, CORPORATE RIGHTS on the REPRESENTATIVE PRINCIPLE.

5. To show the iniquity of the present system of POOR-LAW MEDICAL RELIEF, and the absolute necessity for a revision of this national evil.

6. To advocate a Reform in the Ancient Court of Coroner's Inquest, in particular as respects the Medical evidence required in this Court.

Finally. To urge the necessity for SANITARY REFORM, and for the correction of those social and physical evils which at present so lamentably affect the health and lives of the community,—and the dependence of the public interests in this respect upon the scientific acquirements and abilities of the Medical Profession.

Gentlemen of the medical profession, favourable to the above principles, will oblige by forwarding cases, essays, commentaries, and other communications suited for the pages of a Weekly Journal, as one of the means of communicating the results of their experience to the Medical public, and of securing the advocacy of the interests at stake before the Profession, the Government, the Legislature, and the Public.

The Journal is published weekly, price 6*d.*, and will be rendered a full and perfect Repository of all contemporaneous Medical and Surgical knowledge.

WYKE-HOUSE ASYLUM is beautifully situated on SION-HILL, BRENTFORD, (Seven Miles from London,) within 30 acres of highly cultivated land. From its spaciousness and locality it is not surpassed, and in no Institution in the Kingdom is superior accommodation to be found, for HIGHER and MIDDLE-CLASS BOARDERS of both sexes, the mansion being so constructed as to prevent all communication both within doors, and while taking exercise in the grounds. Divine Service regularly performed. Three thoroughly-appointed Bath-Rooms in the Establishment.

Independent of the handsome accommodation at Wyke, there is adjoining, situated on a Lake surrounded by its own grounds and a picturesque Wood, a COTTAGE ORNEE, Wood Lake, intended for the reception of a Lady or Gentleman requiring an entire establishment, replete with every comfort and convenience.

Parties feeling interested can best judge of the Wyke and Wood Lake by a visit, to which they are invited by the Proprietor, Dr. BASCOME, of whom every particular may be learned.

Hadham Palace Asylum,

GREAT HADHAM, HERTS, NEAR BISHOP STORTFORD.

THIS Establishment, distant from London, one hour and a half by Rail and Fly, was founded in the year 1803 by the late Robert Jacob, Esq., on those rational and benevolent principles, which have been assumed as exclusively peculiar to a later period. From its commencement to the present time the same principles have been most strictly observed, and the Institution has been carried on with uninterrupted success. The present Proprietor has had the medical charge of the Establishment for more than forty years, and during the last twenty-one years it has been under his sole management.

The situation is beautiful, but retired. The house and grounds ample and extensive, but from its peculiar locality its inmates enjoy the privilege of daily and uninterrupted walks in the surrounding country—with horse or carriage exercise if desired. The number of Patients received is small, and the domestic management, number of attendants, &c., are on the most liberal scale.

Private Asylum,

FAIRFORD RETREAT, FAIRFORD, GLOUCESTERSHIRE,

Under the Resident Superintendence of the Messrs. ILES.

THIS Establishment, which has been conducted with great success by the present Proprietor for upwards of 32 years, is situated in one of the most healthy localities in the Kingdom, and is distinguished as being one of the Private Institutions which was the most early in the adoption of that moral system of treatment which has been so ably and eloquently enforced by the experience and genius of Dr. Conolly. It espoused the moral treatment of the Insane, when it was both unpopular and unprofitable to do so, but it has since reaped a rich reward in the number of its cures, and in the happiness of its inmates. The Metropolitan Commissioners in Lunacy, in their first Report to the Lord Chancellor, state, "At the licensed houses at Denham Park and Fairford, restraint is stated not to be employed under any circumstances, and these houses are both well managed," and they further state, "Although we believe that the two houses abovementioned are nearly the only licensed houses in which mechanical restraint is entirely suppressed." At the last visit of the Commissioners (November 23, 1850), they report, "At the time of our visit, the Patients were, generally speaking, in a tranquil and comfortable state; no one was under instrumental coercion, the general health of the Patients was good, and the different apartments were clean, well-ventilated, and in good order."

The Garden and Grounds of this Establishment are extensive, and a Farm is attached. The Patients whose cases permit are taken out daily, in fine weather, for walks or drives in the country, and attend Divine Service on the Sundays. A Medical Gentleman resides in the Establishment. The Male and Female departments are entirely distinct, but are superintended respectively by Mr. and Mrs. ILES; and the Institution approaches as near as is practicable, in its arrangements, to that of a well-regulated Private Family. The House and the Farm being the property of the Proprietor of the Establishment, he is enabled to receive Patients at as low a rate of premium as any Institution in the Kingdom.

For further particulars, apply to the Messrs. ILES, Fairford.

The mansion is surrounded by beautiful airing grounds, and numerous out and in-door amusements are provided, including the use of horses and carriages. Personal restraint is superseded by kindness and careful vigilance, and no efforts are spared by the Proprietor (a Physician,) and his wife, to promote the recovery and domestic comfort of the Patients. Terms very moderate.

Asylum for Persons afflicted with Mental Disorders, at Osbaldwich, near York.

THIS Establishment is for the reception of a small and select number of Patients of both sexes, and in easy circumstances, and is conducted by the Proprietor, THOMAS ALLIS, who, for more than eighteen years filled the office of Superintendent of the Friends' Retreat, and directed the moral treatment of the Patients therein.

The domestic arrangements are under the care of his Wife and Daughter, who devote their whole time to promote the comfort and restoration of the inmates. There are extensive airing grounds, and every modern appliance for the recreation, amusement, and good of the Patients.

Private Asylum for the reception of Insane and Nervous Patients,

WIGSTON HOUSE, NEAR LEICESTER.

THE above Establishment having lately undergone repairs, the Proprietor begs to announce that he has vacancies for a few Patients. The Grounds are extensive, and the situation salubrious. The non-restraint system is thoroughly carried out. For Terms, apply aabove.

TARRATT'S BANDAGE and STRENGTHENING PLASTER.—This Plaster, from the nature of the composition and the material on which it is spread, is adapted for a permanent bandage, as it neither produces irritation of the skin, nor, when applied, does heat cause it to lose its adaptation to the part. Having these qualities, it is peculiarly valuable in the treatment of ulcerated legs, varicose veins, &c., where equal and constant support is required. Several of the most eminent surgeons continue to use this Plaster in their practice, preferring it in certain cases to any other. It is well suited for exportation to, and use in, warm climates, the high temperature having less effect on it than on any other plaster.

The profession are referred to Messrs. Westwoods and Hopkins, Wholesale Druggists, Newgate-street, where the Plaster may be had in packets, containing three yards, for 2s. 6d., or spread upon skins of chamois leather, at 3s. 6d.

Westwoods and Hopkins also call attention to their Compound Adhesive Plaster for fractures and wounds, as likewise to their concentrated Preparations, Essences, &c.

Private Asylum for the Insane,

AT WHITCHURCH, NEAR ROSS, HEREFORDSHIRE.

ESTABLISHED IN 1834 BY MR. MILLARD, THE PRESENT MEDICAL PROPRIETOR, WHO RESIDES THERE WITH HIS FAMILY.

THIS House is licensed for the reception of 60 Patients. In it there are now 59 Patients. The total number of admissions is 266, and the returns of the house show that the cures on the 136 Patients admitted during the last five years (namely, from August 29th, 1845, to August 29th, 1850) have been 46,—the deaths 21, and the average duration of treatment on the cures has been thirty-one weeks and four days. The total number of the cures on the 266 admissions being 101, and that of the deaths 36.

It should be the object of all interested in the care and treatment of mental disease, to select an establishment where the greatest number of cures and the fewest deaths occur in the total number of admissions. In general practice, the cures and deaths speak for the ability of the practitioner; so it is in the treatment of insanity; but, in statistics connected with insanity, it should be ascertained whether the establishment selects its patients, and discharges them if not recovered at the end of a year, before casting its returns in the scale with those of establishments where, as at the Whitchurch Asylum, no such plan is adopted.

The patients are treated as much as possible like rational beings, and every inducement is held out to them, by means of amusement and useful employment, to direct the remaining powers of the mind to habits of usefulness, thereby promoting its restoration to health. The walks in the beautifully diversified country around are enjoyed by the convalescent, who are also attended to the places of worship to which they have been accustomed.

Terms and forms of Certificates can be forwarded on application.

WHITE HALL HOUSE,

NEAR BRISTOL:

Proprietor and Resident Medical Attendant,

J. D. F. PARSONS, M.R.C.S.

THIS Establishment, for the reception and treatment of Females suffering from the various forms of Mental Disease, was opened A.D. 1831, by the late Dr. J. Brathwait Taylor, and conducted subsequently by Mrs. Taylor, at whose death it passed into the hands of the present proprietor (her brother), who had been, for many years, the resident Medical Superintendent.

During the past year, the house has been altered and enlarged, for the purpose of affording increased and improved accommodation; and there are now vacancies for a few patients, in addition to the number for which the buiding was formerly licensed.

The object of all institutions for the treatment of insanity, is to afford to mental invalids a retired residence, in which, while they receive the medical and moral treatment which experience has shown to be most conducive to the cure or alleviation of their disease, they may also enjoy the greatest attainable amount of safety, tranquillity and personal comfort, accompanied by the least possible sense of confinement or restraint. The comparative facility with which this object can be attained in an asylum devoted exclusively to the reception of females of the educated classes, and the consequent advantages of such an establishment, especially for mild and incipient cases, are too obvious to be overlooked; and Mr. Parsons, while thus making known the increased accommodation which his house now affords, desires to add, that in seeking to promote, by every means in his power, the comfort and recovery of his patients, he is actuated by a sense of the heavy responsibility, religious and moral, which attaches to the charge of those whose condition, while it renders them dependent, immediately, on the integrity and kindness of those to whose care they are intrusted, marks them also as the objects, in an especial degree, of His watchfulness, in the course of whose providence they are so heavily afflicted.

A statement of Terms, which vary from two pounds a week, according to the accommodation required, may be obtained by application to Mr. Parsons. References of the highest character can be given.

The clothing and personal comforts of the patients are carefully attended to, under the immediate superintendence of Mrs. Parsons.

Proprietor, Mr. ELLIOTT, and Conducted by Mrs. SYMMONS.

THE House, surrounded by its Lawn, Walled-in Gardens, Meadow and Orchard of 5 Acres, has long been admitted to be one of the most beautiful and secluded residences in this well-known healthy locality.

The additions and detached buildings have been erected at considerable expense, on the most approved plans, so arranged as to render mechanical restraint unnecessary, affording Classification to the Insane, Quietude to the Nervous, and to the Epileptic those accommodations which are so particularly required.

This Establishment being exclusively for the reception of Females, will render a greater extent of liberty and recreation available, in many cases, than can possibly be obtained in houses where both sexes are admitted.

AND TO

Munster House, near Fulham,

THREE MILES FROM HYDE PARK CORNER,

For the Care and Recovery of Nervous, Epileptic, and Insane Gentlemen.

Proprietor, Mr. ELLIOTT.

MUNSTER HOUSE, once the Hunting Seat of his Majesty King Charles II., contains 29 Rooms. It is situated on the road from London to Fulham, in the highest part of the parish, and upon a gravelly soil; the pleasure-grounds are 8 Acres, walled in, studded with noble trees, and comprise Lawns, a Meadow, Orchard, Bowling-green, Green-house, Bowling-alley, Billiard and Reading-room, and detached buildings for recreation and amusement.

An additional House has been built, containing a Hall, large and lofty Dining, Sitting, and Bed Rooms, 17 separate Rooms, Washing and Bath Rooms; rendering Classification complete, and mechanical restraint unnecessary; the whole erected, drained, heated, and ventilated under the sanction of the Commissioners in Lunacy.

Those patients whose cases permit will be allowed (accompanied) to walk and ride into the country, and attend Divine Worship; and if change of air is considered requisite, will, by the request of their friends, be sent to the Sea Coast, where the Proprietor has a Cottage always in readiness.

The terms are One, Two, and Three Guineas per Week, and upwards, according to the form of disease, attendance, and accommodation required.

MANCHESTER ROYAL HOSPITAL

FOR THE INSANE,

NEAR CHEADLE, CHESHIRE,

IS situated in a retired part of the country, nine miles from Manchester, and the buildings have been erected and the grounds laid out with special reference to the most approved methods of treatment, at an expense of about £25,000.

The general plan and arrangements have gained the approbation of those most conversant with such establishments, both in this country and on the Continent, and received the unqualified approval of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lunacy, on their recent official visit to the Hospital.

The objects of its founders and trustees are, to provide the most efficient means for the cure of insanity in those who belong to the middle and upper classes of society, whose means are too limited to obtain for them the requisite assistance elsewhere, and also to secure to more wealthy patients every advantage offered by the best private establishments, free from even the suspicion that interested motives might operate to prolong their confinement unnecessarily.

A Medical Officer of high standing and qualifications constantly resides in the Hospital, and it is regularly visited by two of the Physicians of the Manchester Royal Infirmary, annually elected by their colleagues; but in case of any of the other physicians of that staff being preferred as special Medical attendant or consultant, arrangements may be made to that effect.

Mr. DICKSON, the Resident Medical Officer, will at all times be happy to give further information, or afford the opportunity of forming an opinion on the merits of the Institution by personal inspection.

Lampton House Private Lunatic Asylum,

NEAR HOUNSLOW,

FOR FIRST AND SECOND CLASS BOARDERS OF BOTH SEXES.

Proprietor, Mr. SMITH.

ESTABLISHED IN 1838, ON THE PRINCIPLE OF NON-RESTRAINT, THE PRACTICABILITY OF WHICH HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY MANIFESTED SINCE THAT PERIOD, BY THE CURE OF MANY AND RELIEF OF ALL.

STANDING on an ENCLOSURE of TWENTY ACRES, it affords ample opportunity, within itself, for suitable occupation and amusement. Being personally managed by Mr. SMITH and family, aided by competent keepers, the pastimes of the inmates are varied, and carriage airings are enjoyed, to enliven and ameliorate their unfortunate condition. The house is spacious and commodious, and its adaptation to the varied requirements of the institution will be best judged of by a visit to the house. The professional and general arrangements are calculated to promote the health and recovery of the inmates, who fully participate in all the comforts and privileges of home. The construction of the premises is calculated effectually to prevent all communication between the sexes, either in their separate apartments, or whilst amusing themselves in their gardens.

House-Surgeons, Mr. Frogley and Dr. Hall, the latter of whom recently held the appointment of Inspector of Lunatic Asylums in Scotland.

Cards and prospectuses forwarded on application.

Reference in London kindly permitted to Samuel A. Lane, Esq., 1, Grosvenor-place, Hyde-park.

Home for Invalid Children,

BRIGHTON.

SEA Air and Sea Bathing are absolutely necessary for many complaints to which Children are liable.

Numbers of such Children are constantly brought to Brighton at great expense, often at much inconvenience, and not unfrequently the Parents meet with disappointment arising from the impossibility of pursuing, in private lodgings, that regimen which can alone be accomplished by medical supervision.

It is to avoid such difficulties that the Proprietors have been advised to open a house for the reception of Invalid Children of the Upper and Middle Classes of Society. For the present, arrangements have been made in the private residence of one of the Proprietors; and it is their intention to enlarge the Establishment, and to add all the improvements that Science may suggest; so as in every way to increase its usefulness in proportion as it may be found to answer the requirements of the Public.

Children will be received for any period recommended by their Medical Attendant.

The Domestic arrangements are conducted on a scale of liberality and comfort.

For Particulars and Terms (which are moderate) apply to Messrs. Winter and Lowdell, Surgeons, 24, Cannon-place, Brighton, who will give references to gentlemen of known character in the Medical Profession.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Respiratory Organ and Chest Protector, lately invented by Messrs. COOK and WILLIAMS, of Princes-street, Hanover-square, is a remarkably neat contrivance to remedy the defects that have hitherto existed. This Respirator is very convenient and simple, and occupies so little space, that it may be carried in the pocket. That for gentlemen has somewhat the appearance of a stock; that for ladies, of an elegant neck-tie, with a little fold, invisible when down, but readily adjusted over the mouth by means of an elastic band. It fulfils admirably the purpose of the inventors, and will, no doubt, supersede the cumbrous machine of Mr. JEFFREY'S. Messrs. COOK and WILLIAMS' apparatus is cheap, elegant, and effective."—Lancet, Nov. 30, 1850.

"A cheap and simple safeguard for all persons will be found in COOK and WILLIAMS' newly-invented "RESPIRATORY ORGAN AND CHEST PROTECTOR," which excludes fog, cold, or night-air, without any inconvenience to the wearer, or disarranging the toilet. This invention is far superior to anything of the kind before introduced."—Naval and Military Gazette, Nov. 30, 1850.

FACTITIOUS MINERAL WATERS,

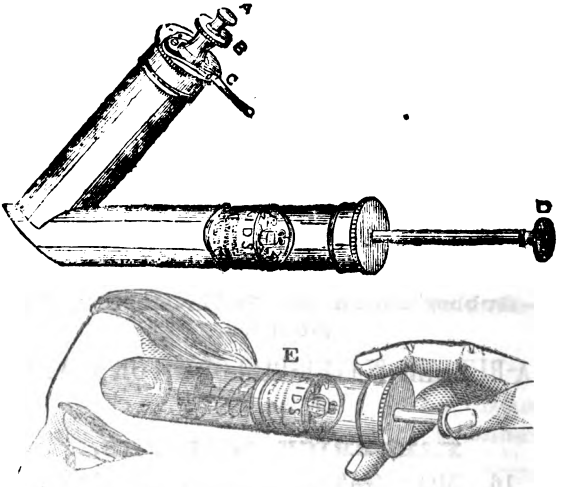
Royal German Spa, Brighton.

STRUVE and CO. beg to direct attention to the above establishment, where for more than 25 years past all the most efficient waters have been prepared, and have been admitted by the best English and foreign authorities to be identical in physical properties and medicinal effects with the natural ones. Numerous attempts are, however, made to impose cheap and inferior preparations upon the public, by using Struve and Co.'s old bottles, imitating their labels, and by the use of the designation "Brighton Seltzer," "Brighton Fachingen," &c., while a careful analysis of some of these, stated to be prepared "according to the most accurate analysis," has shown the total absence of iron in the professed chalybeates, and a general disregard to their true chemical composition. Struve and Co., therefore, advertise that every bottle of Struve's Mineral Waters has a red ink Stamp over the cork, having the words "Royal German Spa, Brighton" beneath the Royal Arms, and on each side the signature of Struve and Co. To forge or pirate this stamp is felony. The frauds alluded to relate more particularly to the Seltzer, Fachingen, Vichy, and Püllna Waters. Orders for Struve's Mineral Waters continue to be executed by George Waugh and Co., Chemists to the Queen, 177, Regent-street, London, and by numerous other respectable houses in London and other towns, where a prospectus may be obtained gratis.

KIDSTON'S MECHANICAL LEECH,

Registered pursuant to Act 6 & 7 Vict. c. 65,

INVENTED AND MANUFACTURED ONLY BY WM KIDSTON & Co.
18, BISHOPSGATE STREET WITHOUT, LONDON.



W. K. & Co., in directing the attention of the Medical Profession to their newly-invented little instrument, termed "Kidston's Mechanical Leech," think it would be superfluous and presumptuous to make any comment in its favour, further than drawing their attention to the accompanying testimonials, being a few only of the many they have received, speaking in high terms of its efficacy.

TESTIMONIALS.

5, George-street, Hanover-square, Sept. 24, 1850.

Having on several occasions seen the "Artificial Leech" employed by Mr. Collingwood, at Guy's Hospital, I can state, from personal observation, that it perpectly answers its purpose, abstracting blood gradually, and in any required quantity, from any part to which it is applied. The certainty and speed of its action, and the precision as to quantity of blood drawn, together with the diminished risk of erysipelas, render it, in my opinion, preferable in all cases to the natural leech.

B. G. BABINGTON, M.D.

21, Leicester-square.

Having had an opportunity of carefully examining the "Mechanical Leech," invented and manufactured by Messrs. Kidston and Co., I am of opinion that it will be found eminently serviceable in supplying the place of the natural leech, in situations and under circumstances where the latter is found too troublesome and inconvenient for application. In every instance, indeed, where leeching is desirable, it appears to me that the application of this instrument will be found the more speedy and cleanly mode of accomplishing it. It is a very ingenious instrument, simple in its construction, and very manageable.

16, George-street, Hanover-square, July 6, 1850.

I have examined the "Mechanical Leech" made by Messrs. Kidston and Co., and admire the ingenuity displayed in its construction. I think it well adapted to supply the place of the natural leech, and therefore likely under certain circumstances to be of great value.

WM. FERGUSSON, Professor of Surgery in King's College.

Finsbury-place South, August 26, 1850.

I have examined, and on several occasions tried, Mr. Kidston's very beautiful and ingenious instrument, the "Mechanical Leech," and have every confidence in recommending it to my professional brethren, not only as an excellent substitute for, but as possessing very great advantages over, the ordinary leech.

The following are in my opinion some of its advantages:— It is always available; the mode of using it is very simple; it can be applied to any part of the body; and any quantity of blood may be drawn, and that in much less time than by leeches.

JOHN GAY, F.M.C.S., Surgeon to the Royal Free Hospital, &c.

I have on several occasions employed the "Artificial Leech" invented by Mr. Kidston, and it has not failed on any to answer my best expectations. It will be found to supersede the use of the natural leech, both as regards economy and the facility of its application. In cases of bubo, inflamed inguinal glands, orchitis, &c. &c., I regard an instrument of the kind as most valuable to the surgeon.

G. BORLASE CHILDS, F.R.C.S., Surgeon-in-Chief, City Police Force.

August 28, 1850.

I have had frequent opportunities of testing the "Mechanical Leech" on different parts of the body, and its effects at all times have been most satisfactory to me.

Its usefulness is never shown to greater advantage than in its application to the head, chest, or bowels in the inflammatory affections of young children; for the rapidity with which blood can be drawn, without exposure of the parts to the cold air, as also the perfect control of the quantity to be abstracted will render it an indispensable requisite in the armamentarium of the medical practitioner.

C. HOPE BUNCOMBE,
Surgeon to the Infirmary of the City of London Union.

The apparatus will be often found of inestimable benefit when leeches are not to be had; in addition to which, the erysipelatous inflammation which so often attends leech-bites will probably be obviated by its use. In the practice of hospitals and other public institutions especially, we think it must come into general adoption. We have seldom seen so ingenious an invention, or one apparently so well adapted for its purpose. —THE LANCET, Sept. 14, 1850.

Full instructions for use will accompany the Instruments, which may be had of the Inventors, WM. KIDSTON & CO., Surgical Instrument Makers, &c., 18, Bishopsgate-street Without, London, and of their Agents—

COLES'S ALGA MARINA, a CONCENTRATED ESSENCE of the SEA-WEED, as used and recommended by many of the Faculty, in cases of Weakness, Relaxation, and Contraction of the Limbs and Joints, whether of delicate children or in mature age. In Paralysis, stiffness or rigidity of the Muscles or Ligaments, deformities of the Spine, Chest, or Limbs, diseases of the Glands, Swellings, Tumours, Bronchocele, Enlargements, and old Cicatrixes, Scrofulous diseases, and the malformations of Rickety or Badly-nursed Children. Also, in Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and all Neuralgic Pains, in recent or old Strains, Burns or Bruises; and in all that extensive class of diseases for which the Sea-side is usually recommended.

COLES'S ALGA MARINA is a Concentrated Essence, extracted from the juices of the Sea-weed; containing, in a highly condensed form, all the medical virtues of these plants.

The Profession are invited to read a pamphlet upon the medical virtues and methods of using COLES'S ALGA MARINA, and containing numerous cases and high testimonials in proof of its great restorative powers, which may be obtained, gratis, of T. KEATING, Pharmaceutical Chemist, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard, London, sole Agent for the sale of Coles's Alga Marina, in bottles, 2*s.* 9*d.*, 4*s.* 6*d.*, and 11*s.* each.

RED PARAGUAN SARSAPARILLA.—D'VERE'S COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT, (prepared by cold process,) from the above fine species of the root, and prescribed by the first physicians and surgeons of the day, is acknowledged by the faculty to be the best form of Sarsaparilla now in use. Among other distinguished medical gentlemen who have so successfully prescribed this preparation, may be mentioned the following:—Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir James M'Gregor, Wm. Lawrence, Esq.; Wm. Fergusson, Esq.; G. J. Guthrie, Esq.; Dr. Watson, Dr. Babington, Dr. Latham, Dr. Ashwell, Dr. Scott, and the late Sir Charles Scudamore; Robert Liston and Aston Key, Esqrs., as well as numerous other eminent physicians and surgeons.

To be obtained in Bottles, Half-pints, 8s.; Pints, 15s.; Quarts, 25s.; (accompanied with doses and directions), of T. Keating, Pharmaceutical Chemist, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard, London.

PURIFIED COD LIVER OIL imported by H. Cox & Co. On account of the extensive adulterations in this valuable medicine, Mr. KEATING begs to say, this oil is subjected to every Chemical Test, consequently strongly recommended by many practitioners. The undermentioned Testimonial from the largest Hospital for Consumptive Patients in London, is a sufficient recommendation of its purity.

A constant supply is obtained direct from Newfoundland, therefore the consumer may always depend upon having the same genuine article. Previous to taking, Mr. Keating requests that the Oil be well agitated, as in cold weather a deposit generally ensues.

SARSAPARILLA.

IT is asserted by many eminent Medical Men, that there is no Medicine in the Materia Medica comparable to Sarsaparilla for recruiting the debilitated constitution, restoring the tone of the stomach, improving the general state of the system, and, by its continued use, removing various morbid symptoms ascribed to a deranged condition of the fluids—such as Eruptions on the Skin, Ulcerations, Scorbutic and Cutaneous Diseases, and Rheumatic Pains, operating as a general and complete purifier of the blood—BUTLER'S "COMPOUND CONCENTRATED DECOCTION, OR FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA," is the original of the now numerous preparations of the kind, and is extensively prescribed by Medical Practitioners; it is most carefully prepared (from the finest Jamaica Sarsaparilla imported) at a low temperature, so as to preserve entirely the virtues of the root in the most efficient and concentrated form. A pint bottle is equal to four quarts of the ordinary preparation.

THESE TRUSSES are universally admitted to be the Most Effectual Instruments now in use for the relief and cure of HERNIA. The pads resist the descent of the Hernia when stooping or coughing. The following opinions are selected from a list too numerous for insertion in a single advertisement:—

"We are unanimous in the opinion that Mr. Coles has attained such a degree of perfection in the adaptation of trusses, that they can be worn almost from the birth, let the species of reducible rupture be what they may; that they effect greater security to the patient, and with considerably less inconvenience than any other truss."—New London Surgical Pocket-Book,—Sherwood and Company.

"This is the only real improvement in the construction of a truss that ever came under my inspection."—George Birkbeck, M.D. John Borthwick Gilchrist, Esq., a friend of the Doctor's, gave Mr. Coles a handsome testimonial of his case, in which he says—"I may add, that this truly scientific discovery justly entitles the inventor of such an instrument to universal confidence."

"The pressure upon the ring is not merely equalized, but adjusts itself, without inconvenience to the wearer, to the different attitudes in which the body may be placed."—Wm. Thos. Brande, Esq., Journal of Science, Literature, and the Arts, No. 28, Royal Institution.

"That man who has the ingenuity to construct an instrument which is calculated to alleviate so large a portion of human suffering, will ever be considered by me to be a great public character."—Edmund Belfour, Secretary, Royal College of Surgeons.

"They make a more uniform pressure on the ring than the ball-and-socket pad can effect."—Sir A. Cooper, Bart., F.R.S., in his Treatise on Hernia.

"The various positions of the body in stooping and coughing do not alter the position of the pads, nor displace them."—Thomas Callaway, Esq., Guy's, in his Certificate on Coles's Trusses.

"It is my firm conviction that his trusses will be found more efficacious than any at present employed."—Henry Earle, Esq., F.R.S.

"No man entertains a higher opinion of your truss than I do."—Benjamin Travers, Esq., F.R.S.

"I consider these trusses calculated, beyond every other truss I have seen, to cure this disease in its earliest and simplest form."—Gideon Mantell, Esq., F.R.S., 19, Chester-square.

FRANCIS L. PUCKRIDGE,

Sole Inventor and Manufacturer

OF THE LATE

Mr. R. LISTON'S WATERPROOF TRANSPARENT ISINGLASS MEMBRANE PLASTER.

Now patronized and used by Mr. Liston's successor, Mr. J. M. Arnott, in his Hospital and Private Practice. Patronized likewise by Mr. W. Ferguson, Surgeon of King's College Hospital, and Mr. Wormold, of Bartholomew's Hospital. Used for Amputation and other serious wounds, requiring observation without exposure to the air.

F. L. P. begs to state there are three qualities, the third not being sufficiently strong for amputation, but of the same properties, and is particularly beneficial for strains, sprains, or any weakened part. Also PLAIN MEMBRANE, or DEFENSIVE SKIN, to apply between the wound and the lint; being of a porous nature, it admits what is applied with the lint, and causes less pain in dressing. Likewise a superior GAUZE LISSE, of the same adhesive properties as the Membrane, and nearly as waterproof. Also a WHITE GAUZE LISSE, not waterproof, much used by Mr. Arnott in his Hospital; also on black silk and cotton.

F. L. P. offers his most grateful thanks for the encouragement and kind patronage he has received from the Medical Gentlemen of England and foreign parts, and hopes to merit a continuance of their favours by manufacturing his Plasters with the same unremitting care as heretofore.

May be had of the Proprietor, who has removed from 3, Dobson's-terrace, Kennington, to 4, York-place, Walworth, of Chemists, Surgical Instrument Makers, &c., with improved directions how to apply.

F. L. RIDGE'S

WATERPROOF TINTED COURT PLASTER,

AND ALSO

TINTED GOLD BEATER'S SKIN.

THE Proprietor of the above-named articles offers his most grateful acknowledgments to the Nobility and Gentry for the very liberal patronage with which they have honoured him by their approval of the Illuminated and Embossed Leather Tablets, which may be had also by the yard.

F. L. R. begs particularly to introduce to notice his FRENCH PAPER CARD-CASE TABLETS, likewise his GOLD and SILVER FANCY PAPER TABLETS of COURT PLASTER, which he assures them contain precisely the same healing and adhesive properties as the more expensive ones, and may with safety be applied to the most delicate skin or serious wounds; also in elegant envelopes, from One Shilling to One Penny each.

N.B.—May be had, wholesale and for exportation, of the Proprietor, removed from No. 3, Dobson's-terrace, Kennington, to No. 4, York-place, Walworth, and wholesale warehouses. Also retailed by all principal Chemists, Perfumers, Fancy Shops, Bazaars, &c.

NEW CLUB.

WHILE other ranks or orders of the community have their CLUBS, or their acknowledged SOCIAL RESORTS, in the Metropolis, the members of the MEDICAL PROFESSION form an EXCEPTION. Nevertheless, it must be universally admitted, that an unrestricted concentration of friendly and professional intercourse among them would be a desideratum.

Several Gentlemen, impressed with the conviction of the advantages of an immediate organization in furtherance of this object, have formed a plan for the foundation of a MEDICAL CLUB, open to all the legally recognised orders of the Profession throughout the world, and also, by special nomination, to other select classes.

Should the proposal meet the approval of members of the Profession, the Editors of "THE MEDICAL DIRECTORY" have kindly undertaken to receive, and to forward to the promoters, any intimation to that effect, and also, if agreeable, promises of parties to become Members, conditionally, that the Rules, the Terms (which will be very moderate), and the plan generally, shall be sanctioned when submitted for their consideration.
